not see might see, and those who do see might become blind.

Welcome

We are delighted to welcome each and every one who has come to worship with us today. Whether you're a longtime parishioner, a newcomer, or just visiting, know that our desire is to extend God's loving presence to all.

If you would like to register, you can download the registration form from our website, www.stmartha.com, or find a copy in the narthex on the welcome kiosk.

Vision Statement: Baptized into Christ Jesus, we worship as one and reach out to all.

Message from our Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

So the last time we heard the story of the man born blind in our liturgical cycle was in 2020. This fourth Sunday of Lent was the first weekend we had to close the Church and watch from home. It was a sad and painful time for all of us, but we have come a long way in the three years since the pandemic struck. The one constant in all of this over the last three years is that God is with us. He was with us during the pandemic and He remains with us now! The man born blind knew of the Lord's love and presence in his life because he was healed by Jesus. We pray that our culture and our world may open our eyes to the presence of Jesus. He can heal us and strengthen us, as we certainly have seen over the last three years! May God continue to bless us and strengthen us to follow him and see His presence of love.

Fr. T.J.

We Are Asking For Your Help We are Listening

Christ is for everyone. The St. Martha Pastoral Council is looking to better understand how St. Martha can better engage parishioners to become closer with Christ. We are looking to learn how this parish can gain the interest of parishioners to attend Mass and be part of ministries, services, and parish activities.

- We are looking for young adults and families who may be challenged in engaging more with St. Martha
- We will be holding several 30-minute listening sessions in the upcoming weeks
- We are also able to schedule one-on-one conversations.

If you or if you know anyone who would like to participate in a brief conversation, or for the dates and locations of the listening sessions, please contact Mark Zessin at markzessin20@gmail.com or John Sedlak at sedlak.john@gmail.com

Communal Penance Service

Stewardship Corner

Stewardship Reflection for the Fourth Sunday of Lent

St. Paul gives us a wakeup call. As stewards of the light of Christ, we are to reflect that light with the help of the Holy Spirit. If Christ's work has transformed and illuminated our lives, there should be a change. The light of Christ's active presence should be at work in us. And as the light shines within us, we take on the properties of that light and we shine too. We are used by God to shine the light of Christ in the lives of others. A challenging Lenten reflection: Is the light of Christ shining in our hearts? Is the light of Christ reflecting out from us to others?

Ushers Needed

The Ushers were pleased to have quite a few parishioners respond to our call for help last year. We were able to increase our rosters for teams at the 5:30 p.m. Vigil Mass and 7 a.m. Mass in particular. We find ourselves still very short at 11 a.m. and a bit short at 9 a.m. Since more parishioners attend these two Masses than others each weekend, we are certain there are many good candidates.

During his recent annual DSF homily, Fr. TJ challenged us to be the “salt of the earth” and not only give to DSF, but also to join one of St. Martha’s many ministries. Since the Ushers fall into the “serve while you are already at Mass” category, being a part of our team requires no special meetings or travel. Lent is also a good time to join: “Don’t give up chocolate. Take up ushering.” Please consider joining our Ministry of Hospitality and let me know if you have any questions. Thank you for your consideration!
