Message from our Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

We have been really blessed as a parish to walk with seminarians on their journey to priesthood. One of those seminarians, Zachary Muldrow was just ordained a priest and will be assigned to St. Martha's starting July 1st! We are excited to have Fr. Zachary join Fr. Ralph and I for priestly ministry at St. Martha's. Also, we have a seminarian who will spend his summer with us. Kyle Gibson is in formation for the priesthood and he will be experiencing parish life to help him with his journey. You will see him at Mass and various events during the summer. Please pray for Kyle, Fr. Zachary, and other men in formation for the priesthood. This is also a chance for us to be reminded of the need for us as a parish to provide more vocations to the priesthood. Please pray that young men from our parish will enter the call to join the seminary. We need more to keep up with the needs of the Archdiocese and the people of God. Thank you for being such a supportive parish for vocations!

Fr. T.J.

Stewardship Corner

Stewardship Reflection for Corpus Christi Sunday

This Sunday, June 11, we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, or Corpus Christi, to celebrate the gift of the Eucharist. Of course, the best way to celebrate it is to live it, to put the Eucharist into action. None of us can be a mere spectator to the Eucharist, for this offering to God of bread and wine is really our offering to him of ourselves, of our lives, and of the whole world. Jesus taught us this connectedness when he enjoined us to go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel (see Mark 16:15).

The Eucharist invites us to be "stewards of the Gospel" to follow in Jesus' footsteps and to love others just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us. This is the meaning behind the language of blood sacrifice of which we will hear proclaimed in the weekend's readings. Blood is fundamentally life. The commitment to share in a common life, the covenant between God and Israel, was endorsed in blood, lots of it. Sacrifice was, and is necessary.

But how does the celebration of the Eucharist relate concretely to our ordinary day-to-day lives? At one level, the practice of going to Mass affirms our belief that there is something extraordinary in our ordinary, daily lives. We take time to acknowledge to ourselves, our families, and our communities that we are engaged in a relationship with God through Jesus Christ.

More deeply, however, is that the Eucharist transforms us. It provides a center of our being and a driving force that impels us to go out and "be" Christ to a broken world. We are nourished and strengthened in a profound way in order to build up the Body of Christ and carry out Jesus' command to be missionary disciples.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ reminds us that we are each called to serve, uniquely equipped with gifts for missionary discipleship, and sent forth to carry the good news of the Gospel to all we meet wherever we go. And we are never alone in this journey of faith. Christ is with us in a real and most personal way.

Stewardship of Treasure

On the Feast of Corpus Christi, the total collection of each parish in the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston is dedicated to support the seminarians of the Archdiocese who are pursuing the priesthood. USHERS NEEDED!

CALLING ALL VOLUNTEERS! WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Summer brings new challenges and opportunities. Many of us will get busier with vacations and attending our children's or grandchildren's sporting events. Within our Usher ranks this means times when some of us are unable to serve with our team. Since we're still short a few Ushers on our 11 a.m. (primarily) and 9 a.m. (secondarily) teams, the summer is when we most often have fewer serving than we'd like to cover all seating sections for those Masses.

On the opportunity side, in recent years the Ushers have been granted a summertime reprieve: Due to the oppressive Texas heat, gentlemen are allowed to serve without coat-and-tie between Memorial Day and Labor Day. Hopefully, this more lenient dress policy – collared shirt and dress slacks – will appeal to some of you who have considered joining our group. Little changes in the summer for the ladies, but we would still love to invite you to join us as well! The same goes for our older parish youth. Given the break from studying, our teens and pre-teens may find participating in the Mass to be rewarding.

The Ushers still fall into the "serve while you are already at Mass" category, so please consider joining our Ministry of Hospitality and let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you for your consideration!

Usher Coordinator

MARTHA'S KITCHEN – PRAY FOR THE HOMELESS

Dear Heavenly Father,
As the weather starts heating up, we come before you with hearts filled with compassion and concern for the homeless and hungry among us. We lift them up to you, knowing that you are a God of love and provision.

Grant them relief from the sweltering heat, Lord. Provide shade and coolness in their times of distress. Quench their thirst and protect them from the harmful effects of extreme temperatures.

Bless those who tirelessly work to provide food and shelter for the homeless. Multiply their efforts, resources, and reach. Give them strength and wisdom to meet the needs of those who hunger.

"Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." - Matthew 25:40

Out of work or looking for a better job?

St. Martha Between Jobs and Beyond can help!!

St. Martha Between Jobs and Beyond seeks to provide help to those who are unemployed or underemployed in our parish and the surrounding area by first assisting with the tasks of finding a job (resume writing, interview preparation, and networking). Second, we help people stay motivated throughout the job search through prayer, our support group and one-on-one coaching. We also encourage those who are seeking a new job to adopt a spirit of service.

We meet every Friday in Room 2 on the Faith Formation Campus. The meetings start at 8:45 a.m. with an opening prayer, followed by an education session on a job search topic such as resume writing, then support activities through one-on-one coaching or our group discussion called the Journey Forward. We finish with a networking discussion and are usually done before noon.

We encourage every working parishioner, as well as those who have come through this ministry, to participate by praying for the job seekers as well as providing networking contacts and job leads for the job seekers. If a parishioner is interested in participating as a volunteer, contact Bob Simpson:

Retrouvaille: No Marriage Is Beyond Hope

Ben & Michelle attended a Retrouvaille weekend as a divorced couple. They remarried later that year. Love is patient.

Are you or someone you know struggling in their marriage? Do you wish to regain the spark and joy you once felt at the start of your relationship? Let Retrouvaille be the lifeline of hope for your marriage.

Retrouvaille is a volunteer, peer ministry endorsed by the Archdiocese that has helped thousands of couples rebuild the loving relationships they once had. Whether your marriage needs a refresh or a rescue, Retrouvaille can help you.

The Next Houston Retrouvaille Weekend is July 14th-16th
