Message from our Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

Today we hear kind of a strange parable that is filled with violence and destruction. As the landowner leases his vineyard and goes on a trip, the tenants do bad things to his property, his servants, and even his family. They have no regard for what they have been given or the people that are entrusted to help. When the landowner returns, he is justifiably angry when he hears what has happened, and he punishes the tenants! My friends, we have to be careful not to be like the tenants in this story. God has entrusted us with so much, and he doesn't want us to squander these gifts. If we don't do well with what we have been given, there will be consequences. The truth is, nothing we have is really ours. It all belongs to God because we are stewards of what he gives us. We can improve the things He gives us and make them better, but they still ultimately belong to him. If we think these belong to us alone, we might be like the tenants in the Gospel who use gifts for the wrong reasons. We pray that we may recognize the gifts God gives us and be willing to share those with others.

Fr. T.J.

Stewardship

Stewardship Reflection for the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

This weekend's Gospel reading poses some challenging stewardship questions, particularly at a time when so many people are becoming disengaged from their faith communities. When Christ returns, will we be found working diligently in the Lord's "vineyard," converting our own hearts into a rich harvest of love and compassion? Calling those outside our vineyard to enter into the joy of the Lord? Or will we just be living off of what the Lord has given us, but not sharing God's love with others? Jesus' parable suggests that if we are not good stewards of the gifts we've been given then the gifts will be taken away, and we will be called to give an account for our failures. We have all we need for a bountiful harvest, even during these disquieting times. What will our Lord find when He returns and asks us to give an account?

A “synod” is a journey of discernment rooted in the Holy Spirit. In the Synod on Synodality, the entire Church has been called to discern how the Spirit is moving through and with the Body of Christ — inside and outside the Church — so that we may continue to fulfill our mission to evangelize in the world. Our Church will be meeting Oct. 4-29. Let’s pray for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit to help us understand how God might be speaking to all of us.

Prayer for the Synod of Synodality

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

*All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever.*

Amen.

Please remember the recently deceased and their families in your prayers:

ENTHRONEMENT OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

The Sacred Heart of Jesus is "one of the most widespread and popular [devotions] in the Church.

Among the many pious customs involving the Sacred Heart is a traditional "enthronement," or "consecration" of your house (and heart) to Jesus.

Jesus promised to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque:

"I will bless the homes where an image of My Heart shall be exposed and honored".

Society of St. Vincent de Paul
Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston

St. Martha Conference Society of St. Vincent de Paul Thanks You!

Last year St. Martha's Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul provided beds and bedding for five families in need.

Just before Christmas a request came from a refugee family living in an apartment in Kingwood for beds for two young girls. Because of space limitations, the girls were sleeping on the floor. Due to space and cost constraints our Conference searched for a bunk bed. We were referred by one of our members to a sister agency, "Sleep in Heavenly Peace" (SHIP), a ministry that provides beds and bedding for children who do not have a bed to sleep in. After we referred the family and completed an application, a two-family team from SHIP provided and installed a bunk bed and bedding for the girls on CHRISTMAS EVE!

Your continued financial support to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is a sign of God's love to those in need and enables us to work with other charitable organizations.

Thank you for your continued support and may God bless you now and always.

If you are interested in making a donation to the St. Martha Conference, please contact our office at 281-358-6636. Someone will return your call during the work week.

Or, you may send a check to:

Out of work or looking for a better job? St. Martha Between Jobs and Beyond can help!!

St. Martha Between Jobs and Beyond seeks to provide help to those who are unemployed or underemployed in our parish and the surrounding area by first assisting with the tasks of finding a job (resume writing, interview preparation, and networking). Second, we help people stay motivated throughout the job search through prayer, our support group and one-on-one coaching. We also encourage those who are seeking a new job to adopt a spirit of service.

We meet every Friday in Room 2 on the Faith Formation Campus. The meetings start at 8:45 a.m. with an opening prayer, followed by an education session on a job search topic such as resume writing, then support activities through one-on-one coaching or our group discussion called the Journey Forward. We finish with a networking discussion and are usually done before noon.

We encourage every working parishioner, as well as those who have come through this ministry, to participate by praying for the job seekers as well as providing networking contacts and job leads for the job seekers. If a parishioner is interested in participating as a volunteer, contact Bob Simpson: Bob Simpson, 713-410-2844, robert.glenn.simpson@gmail.com

Vocations Corner

An invitation for Adorers to Pray for Vocations

A very special thanks to all of our St. Martha Adorers for your generous prayers for vocations. Some of you have asked for clarification in your responsibilities when you offer your adoration hour for vocations. We hope that you find this explanation helpful.

What does it mean to pray for vocations during my weekly adoration hour? Just as your desire to adore the Lord is a state of the heart, your desire to pray for vocations is also a state of the heart. You may start your adoration hour by saying, "Everything I say in this hour is for the intention of praying for vocations."

Does this mean that I have to pray for vocations the entire hour? No. You are welcome to continue with your regular prayer routine. You may also want to add a specific prayer for vocations such as the one below.

O Holy Spirit, Spirit of wisdom and divine love, impart Your knowledge, understanding, and counsel to youth that they may know the vocation wherein they can best serve God. Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. wtn.com/Catholicism/devotions

Should I sign the Vocations sign-in book? If the book is present and you would like to offer your adoration hour for the intention of increasing vocations, then yes, please sign the book.
