Wish Upon a Star Christmas Gift Program

It is time once again to think about Christmas and our annual Wish Upon a Star campaign, sponsored by SAM Seniors. This program benefits children served by the Sacred Heart Social Ministry, children who have been helped through our St. Vincent de Paul Conference, and children in foster care.

Gift tags will be available in the narthex following all Masses on the weekends of Nov. 9/10 and Nov. 16/17. Gifts should be returned to the church by Nov. 23/24 and Nov. 30/Dec.1. This is the 10th year of this campaign, and we are confident the generous spirit of our parishioners will shine through once again.

Project St. Nick

Project St. Nick is a fundraiser will be held on Friday December 6, 2019 from 5:30-8pm. The Fundraiser is an event for the families and community of St. Angela Merici that will include pictures with Santa and Mrs. Claus, pizza, games and crafts.

Please consider donating to this great event. The sponsorship underwrites the cost of putting on this event. Net proceeds will go to cover costs of Bible Buddies (Parish childcare) so that this ministry can be offered at no cost to parishioners.

PARISH AND COMMUNITY LIFE

Hispanic community

The Hispanic community of St Angela Merici is in the early stage of organization. After identifying the percentage of Hispanic parishioners we are planning on doing more activities at our church. To begin with the enjoyment and success at the Ministry and Heritage Festival is the impetus to do more as a community. Our next participation will be celebrating a bilingual mass for the Feast of The Virgin of Guadalupe- the patroness of the Americas on Thursday, December 12 at 7 :00 pm mass. We would like to involve all the Hispanic parishioners in the organization of our Community. If you want to be part of this community please contact: Diana Valle (valle_diana@hotmail.com)

SPIRITUAL LIFE

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector immediately follows last week's parable of the Persistent Widow. Both are unique to the Gospel of Luke and both reflect his emphasis on the importance of prayer in the life and teaching of Jesus. But whereas the Parable of the Persistent Widow was directed to His disciples to pray without losing heart, today's parable more broadly cautions His hearers to reflect on the manner and content of their prayers.

Tellingly, the parable is addressed to those were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. We usually hear in the Gospel, as we did last week, that Jesus is speaking to an outwardly identifiable group, such as the Apostles, or the scribes and Pharisees, or to those who had gathered or were following Him. But those who are convinced of their own righteousness and despise everyone else are likely to be counted among individuals in all those other groups. Righteous in faith means in good relationship with God, being just in the sight of the Lord. In today's parable, the Pharisee did many things well, he fasted and tithed beyond the required norm. The greater error was not his boasting per se, but his self-righteousness. He presumed how God sees him and his pious acts. Jesus juxtaposed the Pharisees' glaring lack of humility to the posture and prayer of the tax collector, who simply begged God for mercy.

Jesus tells us through the parable that we grow in our relationship with God when we pray with our true self, revealing who we are before God. When we authentically stand before God we make space in our nakedness to receive and experience God's love, mercy, and forgiveness. It is sad and almost comical to visualize the Pharisee telling God just how great he is. We can almost see the Pharisee's arms lifted up, one eye peeking contemptuously at the tax collector, so sure that he is without reproach. Almost comical that is, until we remember those times when we have felt self-satisfied, better than, entitled. We can't even muster disdain toward the Pharisee when we remember those times we forgot we are sinners too, or forgot that whatever we are or do all depends in the first place on God.

Is there part of you that yearns for attention, to be credited with all you have done well? Praying like the Pharisee leaves little space for God, whereas authentic emptying prayer, like the tax collector's, makes room for God's favor. Is it possible to remember that you are not the judge of even your own actions, much less others', because only God knows the inmost secrets of your heart? When we stand apart, in that posture which reflects the truth of ourselves, we actually move closer to the merciful Lord, and these painful moments are transformed into moments of oneness with God and others. Let us humbly pray this week and always to live in the blessed joy of whom we are in God's creation. kathleen⁺AMDG⁺

CONSIDER SPIRITUAL DIRECTION...

It can be difficult in the midst of our very full lives to pray regularly or to even find the words for the prayers that matter to us.

Monthly Spiritual Direction offers both the discipline and accountability we sometimes need and confidentiality of relationship to express our deepest longings and respond to the Lord's invitations.

For more information or to set a time to meet with one of St. Angela Merici's Spiritual Directors contact Kathleen Messina at kathleenmessina@stamericigh.com or (281)778-0400.

May the Healing Love of Christ Surround You!

PARISH AND COMMUNITY LIFE

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

Simply put, Eucharistic Adoration is an opportunity to be in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ. As Catholics, we believe that Christ is truly present in the Eucharist: body, blood, soul, and divinity. In Adoration, the Eucharist is exposed in a special vessel called a monstrance, and placed on the altar for us to adore and worship. It is a powerful and intimate way to pray! You can gaze upon the Lord face to face and offer prayer and thanksgiving, say a rosary, read scripture, journal, or just be still, listen, and keep Him company. What an incredible opportunity to grow in relationship and love with the Lord!

Come, spend an hour with the Lord. You'll be surprised at how your faith grows!

Opportunities for Adoration at St. Angela Merici:

- Every Thursday from 9:00am to 6:45pm. Come anytime for as long as you like. *Weekly adorers needed for 11am-12pm and 4-5pm. Contact Paula Flowers at 713-962-6128 or paulaflwrs@gmail.com.
- BUILD nights, next event Friday, November 8th from 6-8:15pm. Night includes dinner, speaker, praise and worship music, Adoration, and Reconciliation. https://stamericigh.com/build

ST. ANGELA MERICI CATHOLIC CHURCH

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

October 27: Thirtieth-Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Sunday's Gospel, the tax collector's prayer allows God to be God and so allows God to pour mercy into his heart. When we pray and give alms to the poor, we allow God's mercy to be poured into their hearts.
In the month of August, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to bring God's love and mercy to 18 families, providing $100 in food, $2000 in housing and rent, $2014 for utility and $75 in other assistance. We also provided $305 assisting families outside our area and 6 clothing vouchers. Thank You!

Our upcoming meeting: Thursday, November 7th at 6:30PM in the Church Admin Office.

Imposter priest email/texting scams In recent months, there have been numerous reports in Texas of individuals impersonating a parish priest and soliciting donations – normally in the form of gift cards – from members of their congregation. The Texas Attorney issued a related consumer alert in regards to these scammers.In an effort to minimize the impact of these fraudulent actions, pastors are encouraged to remind their membership that priests/churches would never make such appeals to the parish community. Please ad-vise parishioners to notify the church office immediately if they receive any unfamiliar donation requests.

Baptism Preparation

The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the Month and Baptismal classes will be offered the 1st Monday of December and February at 7pm in the St. Angela Merici Room.

Struggling with infertility? You are NOT ALONE! The Office of Pro-Life Activities is proud to announce a partnership with Loving Embrace, a Catholic peer-to-peer support group for ladies or couples struggling with infertility and/or miscarriage. The group provides support for coping with infertility and explores resources, methods, and options that are morally faithful to the teachings of the Catholic Church.

For more information contact Erin at infertilitysupporthouston@gmail.com or PM us through our facebook portal https://www.facebook.com/HOUlovingembrace/
