PARISH AND COMMUNITY LIFE

LENT

ST. ANGELA MERICI CATHOLIC CHURCH

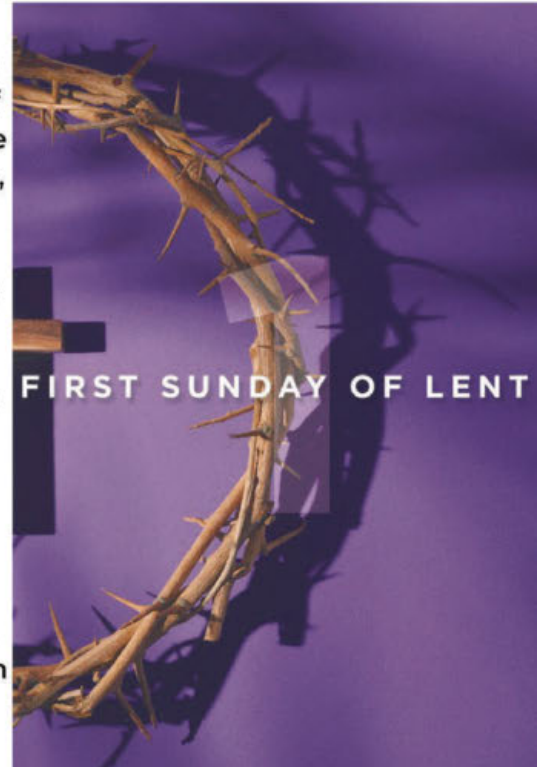

Friends, today's Gospel tells of the Lord's temptation in the desert. After forty days of fasting in the desert, Jesus meets the devil, who proceeds to lure the Messiah onto the path of sin. Jesus' sacrifice will entail his coming to battle sin at close quarters, his willingness, therefore, to be drawn by its power, to come under its sway.

Satan first tempts him with sensual pleasure: "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread." One of the most elemental forms of spiritual dysfunction is to make the satisfaction of sensual desire the center of one's life. Jesus responds: "One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God."

Jesus enters, through psychological and spiritual identification, into the condition of the person lured by this sin, but then he manages to withstand the temptation and in fact to twist this perversion back to rectitude.

Bishop Robert Barron

Touched by God: The Way to Contemplative Prayer by Luigi Gioia

In this book Anglican priest, Luigi Gioia, explains that contemplative prayer is not a more advanced form of prayer, but rather one that offers greater awareness of the presence of God. As we journey with Jesus this Lent, this book will help us to become more acquainted with a form of prayer and grow in the relationship with the Father that sustained our Lord.

Offering Envelopes

Our offering envelope company, Church Budget, has temporarily paused the mailing of the offering envelopes due to a paper shortage they are experiencing. Unfortunately, this has caused many of you to not receive your monthly offering envelopes in February. As Church Budget works with their supplier on rectifying this issue, we encourage you to grab extra envelopes that we will be providing to you in the Narthex of the Church. These envelopes have no identifiers and are to be used in the interim, so please identify your offering with your name and envelope number.

Again, we apologize for the inconvenience and are hopeful that they are able to print and send out the monthly envelopes again soon. For any questions or concerns, please contact the Parish office.

Six ordinary human beings “On the road to Sainthood!” This month, we highlight these beautiful African American women and men who dedicated their lives to serving the marginalized and underprivileged in their communities.
