February 19, 2017

Dear Parishioners,

In this Sunday's Gospel (Matthew 5:38-48), Jesus commands us to "offer no resistance to one who is evil...turn the other cheek...love your enemies...pray for those who persecute you." And if that were not enough, Jesus sums it all up by saying "So be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect."

Hearing that, we might think Jesus is asking us to do the impossible. The only way we can do what Jesus asks is with help, with guidance, and with encouragement! The only way we can fulfill what many feel is the most demanding of all the commands in the Gospel is with the help of the Holy Spirit. The more often we place ourselves in the presence of God, the more often we pray, the more often we gather with the Church, the more often we share the Eucharist, then the more we are filled with the Spirit of God who transforms us and gives us the strength to live the Gospel – the strength to even love our enemies.

Can you imagine if the people in Washington D.C. and in the media would also strive to live by these standards? If people treated those on the "other side" with dignity and respect, and remembering that ALL lives matter – poor and rich, pre-born and elderly, people of all races, nationalities, religions and genders?!

However, the love that Jesus requires of his followers is not a feeling but rather a matter of action. It is a matter of doing good even though it is not deserved. It is a matter of not repaying injury with injury, insult with insult, hurt with hurt. It is a matter of deciding that we will act as God acts toward those who make themselves his enemies by their sin and evil. God continues to do good for them. God blesses the saint and the sinner, the good and the bad, the deserving and the undeserving, the admirable and the detestable. Certainly the ministry of Jesus is proof of God's all-embracing love and care.

As children of God, as disciples of Jesus Christ, we are to strive to follow the example set by God himself. God does not discriminate in doing good. God is not selective in showing love. God lets his love shine on all. "So," as Jesus tells us "be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect." We can strive toward this as our goal of a true successful life, but it requires action and requires a decision to do good even for the undeserving. Seem impossible? It only becomes possible with the help of the Holy Spirit and the model of Love as lived and taught by Jesus himself. (excerpts from Looking to Sunday© by Rev. Thomas B. Iwanowski)

Let us thank God for all we are blessed with living in this wonderful country of ours. Let us honor the Christian principles of our Founding Fathers by honoring God in all things we do each day, and in loving our neighbor and our enemies as ourselves. Truly there can be no greater success story if we follow these principles. Amen!

Wishing you and your family a peaceful and patriotic President's Day!

With Christian love,

Ed Karpinski

BENEFIT
PASTA SUPPER
JANUARY 13, 2017
THANK YOU!
THANK YOU!
THANK YOU!

TO ALL FOR MAKING THE EVENING ONE TO REMEMBER!

We were prepared to fill the gym comfortably and to be ready to serve our guests. We achieved our goal, plus much more. We had sold about 175 tickets to the supper prior to the evening. The evening of the supper so many people arrived to share the meal, make donations or both. The response was overwhelming in attendance, in assistance and in donations. No one expected the turnout that we had. The spirit of the evening was so evident you could feel it. People jumped in to help!

Our food was donated by local restaurants: Forte; Stephanie's; LaFamilia; Calandra; Angeloni; Russillo; Divina; Genaro Cucino; Cedar Grill and Pizza and Sandwich Barn. Our local supermarkets contributed to our food items and contributed toward anything needed. Caldwell Fire Department provided funds for paper supplies and The Party Supply Store added to making the evening great. Let's remember our local businesses when we shop. After the evening was over and everything back in place we realized we had raised $7,100.00 for the families. WOW!
