Dear Parishioners,

This morning’s news (Tues., 5th) is stressing the probable paths hurricane Irma might take and the growing North Korean nuclear crisis. Jesus told his disciples and us: “do not be afraid. I am with you. Help one another”. Catholic faith is lived out in community. We need each other. Faith is not only about what we believe but also about how we live. We are to encourage each other. The support and example we give each other gives us courage; it also provides balance for living in an increasingly difficult world.

God’s Word to us in today’s Scriptures challenges us. Ezekiel is called to warn his people that because of their sinful ways, disaster is coming. Sin always distracts. Sin drags down persons and communities. And the Lord Jesus died for our sins and gave us the way to eternal life.

In today’s Gospel, there is a realistic lesson in how a Christian community (parish) can deal with conflicts with difficult members. Jesus recommends a 3-step process: Start with the person involved alone. If there is no progress, have 2 or 3 good men or women talk to the person. If that doesn’t change things for the better, do what is necessary to maintain harmony and mutual commitment to Gospel living. Never allow anyone to break the precious “Bond of Charity” that Catholic Christians share with each other.

That’s a tall order. It’s also a divine command. “Love your neighbor as yourself” is not a suggestion; it’s a commandment. It is not always easy but it is always necessary.

From pre-k to graduate school, many of our parishioners have returned to school. Many, too, have returned as teachers, school administrators and various school workers. Bless them, good Lord, with a successful year of learning, growth and virtue.

September 20th is the feast of St. Andrew Kim and the Korean martyrs. Shall we invoke their intercession this week for insight, patience and courage to, very simply, do the right thing? Pray for our leaders and decision makers.

Sincerely in Christ,
Msgr. Desmond

“You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel” - Ezekiel 33:7

Many of us are generous with our gifts. However, how often is our generosity at the minimum level required? We do just enough or give just enough. Remember, the Lord calls us to be generous with all the gifts He has given us, to grow them and return them with increase.
