Dear Parishioners,

"Ready or not, here I come!" If you ever played "Hide and Seek" as a child, you are familiar with those words. That phrase perfectly fits this Sunday's Gospel (Matthew 25:1-14). There Jesus tells a parable about ten virgins who go out to meet the bridegroom. While they are counting down the minutes to his arrival, they begin to nod off and all fall asleep. Suddenly they are jolted awake by the cry, "Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!"

As it turns out only five of the ten virgins were truly ready for his arrival. They had wisely brought sufficient oil so their lamps would be burning brightly to welcome him. The other five were short of oil. When the bridegroom arrives they are running about seeking oil for their lamps.

We Christians are like those virgins at times. We are called to welcome Jesus the Lord, the divine bridegroom, who embodies God's kingdom of love, justice, and peace. He is the one who will come in glory at the end of time, and the one who comes into our lives each day. Jesus Christ comes in word and sacrament and in his Church. He comes in the poor and the powerless who cross our path. And he comes in the circumstances and events of daily life.

Those who are wise are ready to welcome and receive him. They are ready with lamps burning brightly with the oil of faith, love, and good works. The foolish are caught unprepared, their lamps are dim and their oil flasks are empty. The wise among us are those who live each day ready to welcome the Lord. The wise ones are those who start each day picturing the Lord saying "Ready or not, here I come!" Or as the Gospel puts it "Therefore, stay awake for you know neither the day nor the hour." (Taken from LOOKING TO SUNDAY® written by Father Tom Iwanowski)

Congratulations to our 108 Confirmed teens, as well as their sponsors, families, our Confirmation Team and our entire parish. May they continue to use the gifts of the Holy Spirit throughout their lives, especially the gift of wisdom.

Peace and wisdom be with you all,
Ed Karpinski

Turkey & Ham
Collection
Monday,
November 20th,
8am - 6pm

Since the supermarkets in the area are offering free turkeys and hams, we would like to share with those less fortunate this Thanksgiving. If you have a frozen turkey breast, frozen turkey or ham (does not need to be frozen) that you would like to donate, please bring it to the vestibule of the St. Aloysius Gym (behind St. Al's Church) on: Monday, November 20th, from 8 am – 6 pm. A volunteer will take it out of the car for you. Gift cards for perishable food and non-perishable food items are also welcome including: Canned Veggies, Mashed Potatoes, Stuffing, Canned Soup, Rice, Pasta Sauce, Pasta, Peanut Butter, Coffee, Sugar, Salt, etc. Thank you for your help! Any questions, please call Patty D'Angelo at 973-885-4977.

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you, thank you, to our entire Parish for such a wonderful celebration of our 125th. The Mass was a fitting act of divine worship in thanksgiving for 125 years of blessings.

The gala dinner-dance will be remembered by all 345 parishioners who attended.

Kaye and Tony Riolo deserve our special thanks, together with their committee. Everything about it - food, music, good company - was amazing.

Thanks to our choir, to Joe Wozniak and Jackie Alworth, for our concelebrating priests, the entire 125th anniversary committee (Patty D'Angelo, Steve Rossi, et alii) and to Fr. JJ and Fr. Jose.

May our good Lord lead us and guide St. Aloysius Parish during the next 125 years.

† † † † † † † † † †

"Eleven, eleven at eleven." Thanks to all Veterans on Veteran's Day.

† † † † † † † † † †

Our Rosary Society arranged for a beautiful gold altar cloth be made for our anniversary Mass. The ladies also recently purchased purificators (Mass linens) for the parish. Thank you, Ladies.

† † † † † † † † † †

Do remember our 2nd graders who are preparing for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Their retreat, together with their parents, is next Saturday.

Every adult in our parish should be concerned about the religious and moral formation of all our youngsters.

† † † † † † † † † †

For ourselves, once we have reconciled with God, a relationship of trust begins to develop. As we face the trials and tribulations of life, and we experience divine deliverance, our confidence in God's faithfulness gradually grows. That doesn't mean that we're trusting God to prevent painful losses in our lives, but rather we trust Him to get us through them with our souls and spirits intact. God "steals" us. If we are growing in faith, then our trust in God is also increasing.

But there's another question beyond "Do I trust God?" Should we not occasionally ask ourselves: "How much does God trust me?"

Sincerely in Christ,
Msgr. Desmond
