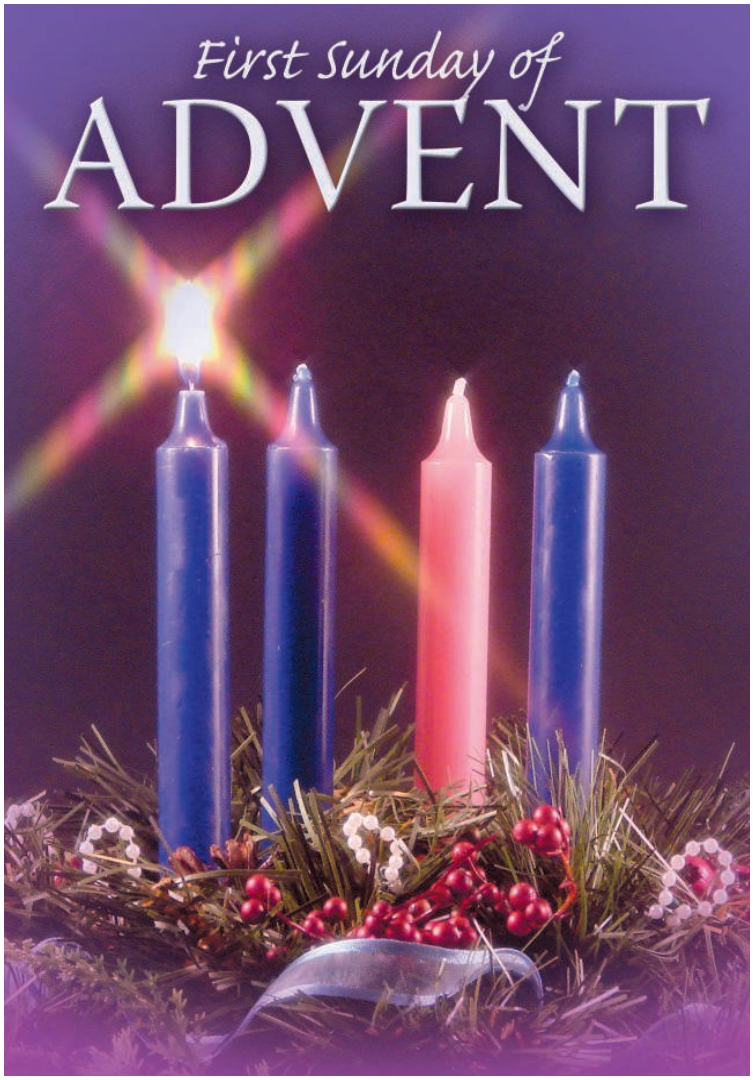
THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM
Through Baptism, we become Children of God and members of the household of faith. Children should be baptized in the faith community to which their parents belong, that is, the Parish in which they are registered and active members. Call the rectory to make arrangements. Parents are reminded that godparents must have received the Sacrament of Confirmation and are actively practicing their faith.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION (Penance)
Saturday: 1:00 – 2:00 p.m.; and after the 5:30 pm Mass

FAITH DIRECT
Faith Direct is an electronic alternative to collection envelopes. Call the rectory for info.



St. Aloysius Parish Mission Statement

St. Aloysius Parish is a Roman Catholic community dedicated to celebrating the life and word of Jesus Christ. All are welcome to deepen their spiritual and personal lives through active participation in weekly Liturgy, the celebration of the Sacraments, Parish ministries and community activities. Acknowledging our incompleteness and our need for God's grace, we commit ourselves, through Baptism, to responding to God's call to become and grow as disciples of Jesus Christ in our time. Jesus Christ is at the center of all of our lives.

Dear Parishioners,

Watch out! Heads up! Look out! And for golfers out there, fore!! Anytime we hear any of these words we immediately become alert, all of our senses sharpen up and start to try to find the source of on-coming danger. In this, our first Sunday of Advent, the very first words spoken by our Lord to his disciples and to us are, "Be watchful! Be alert!".

This time of Advent is a time of preparation. We know that we have to be watchful for the coming of Our Lord at Christmas. Our Lord invites us to sharpen our spiritual senses. I would like to suggest two practices that we can undertake this Advent so that we can be prepared to welcome the Lord into our hearts this Christmas.

Be still. We are constantly on the go. We have to juggle between work, school, sport activities for the kids, house work and a myriad of other activities that keep us bouncing from one place to another. With so much going on in our lives it is important that we press the pause button once in a while to gather ourselves and spend some time in the presence of the Lord. All it takes is five minutes. We can do this at home, in the car, at the office, and of course at church. Hopefully our stillness can then lead us into our next advent practice.

Be silent. God wants to enter into our hearts this Advent and do something special in our lives, but in order for Him to enter into our home we have to answer the door. There is so much noise around us that it can be difficult to perceive the presence of the Lord as he draws near to us in our daily lives. We are distracted by noise from our phones, the radio, the TV, the computer and so many other things. If we can put these things on hold at different times during our day, then we could prepare our hearts to listen to the voice of the Lord who speaks in the stillness and silence of our hearts.

Happy Advent,
Fr. Juan Jose

Dear Parishioners,

Welcome to St. Aloysius, Fr. Thomas Blind. Fr. Tom has been assigned to residence at our parish while pursuing non-parish ministry. He will assist us at weekend Masses and, when possible, for weekday Mass.

With Fr. Tom here now, we will no longer have the good services of Fr. Ciaran Fergus, O.P. We thank him for his assistance.

† † † † † † † † † † † † †

John Fiore owns a landscaping business and he was extremely generous to our parish this Fall. He donated and planted all the large yellow mums; he also did edging and trimming, etc. Thank you, John Fiore.

† † † † † † † † † † † † †

It's appropriate that St. John's Soup Kitchen in Newark has renamed it's facility to "Ms. Barbara Maran Kitchen". Barbara's selfless dedication to our Lord's poorest children in our area was both admirable in itself but also led others to share their food (meatloaves) with the needy. May her good soul rest in peace.

† † † † † † † † † † † † †

The beautiful tree ornaments marking our 125th anniversary are available for $10 each. They are really beautiful! Someone you know might love one as a Christmas gift. They are available at the rectory.

† † † † † † † † † † † † †

The Mighty Message of Mark. As we begin the new Year of Grace, the liturgical cycle, today, the Gospel according to St. Mark will be proclaimed. Chaos was all over the Roman empire at the time Mark was written down (c. 70 A.D.). Emperor Titus had destroyed Jerusalem and the great Temple. The young Christian Church had to navigate through troubled waters.

In Mark's Gospel, Jesus reveals Himself to be the Savior of all who believe in Him.

As Advent begins, what do we need to be rescued from? Think deeply.

Sincerely in Christ,
Msgr. Desmond

"Be the Light for Your Community"
Volunteer Open House

All the Houses of Worship that belong to the West Essex Ministerial Association, including our St. Aloysius Parish, have been invited by the Caldwell Public Library to staff a table and share their volunteer possibilities. Please join us on Tuesday, December 12th from 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm at the Library. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn how our Houses of Worship are reaching out to those in need. There will also be the possibility of joining one of the volunteer services. During this season of Advent this is a wonderful chance to learn how so many of our Congregations truly Lights for others.

St. Aloysius Church is looking for new Altar Servers!!!

Are you in grades 4-12 and want to serve your parish community? If so, then come to our training sessions which will take place in the church on the following dates:

December 8th, 15th and 22nd from 4-5 PM

Do not miss this opportunity to strengthen your faith and become an integral part of the life of your parish.

Installation of new servers and reinstallation of present servers will take place at the following Mass:

December 23nd, 2017 at 5:30 PM

For more information please contact Fr. JJ at info@stalscaldwell.org or call (973) 226-0221

GUADALUPE FEAST

On Sunday, December 10th at 5:00 pm, our Hispanic Community will celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. This beautiful liturgy includes liturgical music by a Mariachi band.

We are honored that His Eminence, Cardinal Joseph Tobin will be the main celebrant of the Guadalupe Mass.

Under the title of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mary is patroness of the American's, the Pro-Life Movement and all expectant mothers.

After Mass on the 10th, all are welcome to a fiesta in the gym.
