May 6, 2018

Dear Parishioners,

MAY.

The month of First Communions, weddings, graduations and anniversaries.

It's the month of ordinations, planting gardens, clothes-closet changes, beautiful flowering trees and shrubs.

It's the month of Baseball, from T-ball and little league to the Yankees and Mets.

It's the month of Allergies, veterans' poppies, Memorial Day and beach openings.

MAY IS THE MONTH OF MARY.

MAY IS THE MONTH OF MOTHER'S DAY.

We honor the Mother of our Redeemer, the first saint, the woman chosen by God to bring Jesus into our world in his humanity. Mary is Mother of the Church. Hopefully every Catholic has a warm place in his or her heart for Our Lady, learning from her trust in God and her maternal care for God's People.

Remember the old adage: "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world". A little exaggerated, perhaps, but a good reminder of the vital importance of Motherhood.

Today we honor all our Mothers, living and deceased. We pray that our good Lord bless them with health, contentment and inner peace.

Let's all pray for troubled Mothers today, those who carry heavy burdens, mothers who struggle to rear families well.

Happy Mother's Day!

Sincerely in Christ,
Msgr. Desmond
