July 8, 2018

Dear Parishioners,

“He was amazed at their lack of faith.” Let that phrase sink in. A WHOLE TOWN managed to amaze Jesus by their lack of faith! The Gospel this Sunday suggests that their lack of faith emanated from their prejudice. The people of Jesus’ town could not get over the fact that “the carpenter, the Son of Mary” could command such authority in his speech, speak with so much wisdom, and perform such mighty deeds. Sadly, we live in a world where prejudice is many a time allowed to flourish, and as a society we prevent progress and healing because of our own fears and insecurities.

All of us want Jesus to touch our lives, to change our lives, to perform mighty deeds in our lives, but in order for that to happen we have to create space in our hearts. The Gospel tells us that Jesus was not able to perform many mighty deeds in his hometown because of their lack of faith and the prejudice that filled their hearts and minds. We have to ask ourselves then, what is there in our hearts that needs to be rooted and casted out in order for us to create the environment necessary for Jesus to work. It may not be prejudice. It may be anger, jealousy, envy, or hate. Whatever it may be, we can ask for God’s grace to be able to remove from our lives that which inhibits Christ from making us whole.

In Christ,
Fr. Juan Jose

Inequality for All
(April 2013)

Wednesday, July 11, 2018

Inequality for All (April 2013) is narrated by Robert Reich, professor and secretary of labor under Bill Clinton. The middle class is struggling. The 400 richest Americans have more money than the bottom 150 MILLION combined. Who is looking out for the American worker? What is causing the country's widening income gap? This film attempts to answer these questions and more about the increase of inequality in America. ■

Human Trafficking

Wednesday, July 18, 2018

How to Spot Human Trafficking is presented by TEDx George School. Kananin Titchen is the presenter who gives an overview of the signs to be aware of and suggestions concerning how to report a possible case of trafficking. ■

IMMIGRATION/MIGRATION
Dying to Live:
A Migrant's Journey

Wednesday, July 25, 2018

Dying to Live: A Migrant's Journey is a profound look at the human face of the migrant. It explores who these people are, why they leave their homes and what they face in their journey. Drawing on the insights of Pulitzer Prize winning photographers, theologians, church and congressional leaders, activists, musicians, and the immigrants themselves, this film explores the places of conflict, pain and hope along the US-Mexican border. It is a reflection on the human struggle for a more dignified life and the search to find God in the midst of it all. ■
