Dear Parishioner,

St. Augustine writes, "We are an Easter people and 'Alleluia' is our song." Our Lord is risen! He is risen indeed! Rejoice and be glad!

Are there then some among us still untouched by this Easter joy? Today's Gospel finds the Apostles in a locked room with some whose hearts are also locked. Are our hearts also, like the spiritually stubborn Thomas', still locked and bolted from within? Are we afraid to invite Jesus in, afraid to fully believe in our Resurrected Lord? What is holding us back? There is no better Lover; no better Savior; no Heaven without Jesus.

Our risen Lord walks through locked doors and confronts Thomas. But He will not enter his unbelieving heart, nor any closed heart. He gave up that power when He created us! He stands outside, gently showing His wounds of Divine Mercy for all to touch, knocking, speaking, and waiting to be invited in:

> "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me." (Rev. 3:20)

The English artist, William Holman Hunt, transformed the above verse into an allegorical masterpiece called 'The Light of the World.' I saw this in London's St. Paul's Cathedral. Our Lord holding a lantern is knocking on a closed door that can only be opened from inside. That is the door of every human heart.

Our Lord persists. Thomas opens his heart and invites our Lord in! Divine Mercy and grace flood in. Thomas is forgiven. Unbelief turns to belief. Irreverence to reverence. Gratitude gushes out, and Thomas confesses: "My Lord and my God!"

With open, forgiven hearts, we beg our Lord's mercy and love to flood us as we witness with awe the transubstantiation of bread and wine into our Lord's Eucharist, and as we worthily receive Him and consume Him. Do not ever be grim and glum. We are truly a joyful, Easter people! Shout Alleluia!
Viva Cristo Rey!

RESPECT LIFE
From Womb To Tomb

Since the legalization of abortion in our country, millions of women, men, and families have been hurt by abortion. By the age of 45, as many as 1 in 3 women have had an abortion, and a similar number of men and family members have been involved. Many inaccurately feel that abortion is "the unforgivable sin." They need to hear that God forgives every sin of a repentant heart, even the sin of abortion.

This Sunday of Divine Mercy provides an important opportunity to share Christ's message of mercy, especially with those who have been wounded by abortion.

USCCB

We pray to the Lord for all those who have participated in an abortion and feel they have committed an unforgiveable sin that they may come to know the Lord's limitless mercy, and turn to Him for forgiveness and healing.

LA VOZ HISPANA

Estimado feligrés,

San Agustín escribió: "Somos un pueblo Pascual y 'Aleluya' es nuestra canción". ¡Nuestro Señor ha resucitado! ¡Ha realmente resucitado! ¡Regosíjate y alégrate!

¿Hay entonces algunos entre nosotros que aún no han sido tocados por esta alegría pascual? El Evangelio de hoy encuentra a los Apóstoles en una habitación cerrada con llave, con algunos cuyos corazones también están cerrados. ¿Están nuestros corazones también, como los de Tomás espiritualmente obstinados, todavía cerrados y atrancados por dentro? ¿Tenemos miedo de invitar a Jesús a entrar, miedo de creer plenamente en nuestro Señor Resucitado? ¿Qué nos está frenando? No hay mejor Amante; no hay mejor Salvador; no hay cielo sin Jesús.

Nuestro Señor resucitado atraviesa puertas cerradas y se enfrenta a Tomás. Pero Él no entrará en un corazón incrédulo, ni en ningún corazón cerrado. ¡Él renunció a ese poder cuando nos creó! Él se para afuera, mostrando suavemente Sus heridas de la Divina Misericordia para que todos lo toquen, golpeando, hablando y esperando ser invitado a entrar:

"He aquí, yo estoy a la puerta y llamo. Si alguno oye mi voz y abre la puerta, entraré en su casa y cenaré con él, y él conmigo". (Apocalipsis 3:20)

¡Hoy es Domingo de la Divina Misericordia! Nuestro Señor promete las mismas gracias transformadoras a todos los que abren sus corazones a Su misericordia. Él le dice a Santa Faustina: "El alma que se confesará y recibirá la Sagrada Comunión obtendrá el perdón total de los pecados y de las penas…. Que ningún alma tema acercarse a Mí, aunque sus pecados sean como la grana".

Con corazones abiertos y perdonados, suplicamos que la misericordia y el amor de nuestro Señor nos inunden al presenciar con asombro la transubstanciación del pan y el vino en la Eucaristía de nuestro Señor, y al recibirlo y consumirlo dignamente. Nunca seas sombrío. ¡Somos verdaderamente un pueblo Pascual!

¡Grita Aleluya!
¡Viva Cristo Rey!

Diácono Raj Srinivasa

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Sunday of Divine Mercy

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (John 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our "enemies." Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.

THINK GREEN

A Prayer for Our Earth
God of all, Creator and Ruler of the Universe,
You entrusted your world to us as a gift.
Help us to care for it and all people,
That we may live in right relationship with You, with ourselves,
With one another, and with creation.
(United States Conference of Catholic Bishops)
