St. Aloysius Parish is a Roman Catholic community dedicated to celebrating the life and word of Jesus Christ. All are welcome to deepen their spiritual and personal lives through active participation in weekly Liturgy, the celebration of the Sacraments, Parish ministries and community activities. Acknowledging our incompleteness and our need for God's grace, we commit ourselves, through Baptism, to responding to God's call to become and grow as disciples of Jesus Christ in our time. Jesus Christ is at the center of all of our lives.

Dear Parishioner

In my early days as a Catholic I used to go with a group of people to do door-to-door and street evangelization. Before talking about our Lord and the essential points of the Kerygma to those who were receptive, we always wanted to ascertain who Jesus was to them by asking the question: Who do you say that Jesus is? We knew from the responses those who did not believe and those who did. The ones who did not would say Jesus was a good teacher like Buddha, or a prophet like Mohammad, or just a good, holy man, etc. But those who did believe always confessed, "He is the Son of God and God."

St. Paul tells us today that no one can boldly confess "Jesus is Lord" unless they are filled with the Holy Spirit. God the Holy Spirit descended on Jesus when John baptized Him. In His entire mission, He communed with the Spirit. And, on that first Pentecost after His resurrection in the Spirit, He lavished the Holy Spirit on the Apostles and the entire Church, and they were filled with intense joy, holy boldness, and a love that transcended human fear. Inflamed by the Spirit, they preached with courage and conviction, willing to live, serve, suffer, and die for our Lord Jesus and the Gospel.

Today, we are invited to recall and renew our Confirmation when we were permanently "sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit." We are no longer a people who are in darkness, still sleeping the sleep of death. A Christian who has willfully surrendered to the Spirit is one who is fully animated and alive in the Spirit. He or she will boldly and eagerly offer and put into use the service and talents the Spirit has manifested (1 Cor 12:7) to lovingly strengthen and build oneself, St. Aloysius, and the greater Body of Christ.

Today, dear brother or sister, drink deep of the Holy Spirit. May He kindle in us the fire of His love! All our efforts in the world, however small or large, will be devoid of good fruit without the Spirit's aid. Let us all become fruit inspectors, not judges! "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control." (Gal 5:22-23)

PIENSA VERDE

Juneteenth no solo celebra la emancipación de los afroamericanos esclavizados y la lucha constante por la libertad, la justicia y la igualdad, sino que también es un llamado a la acción:

- Animémonos mutuamente a reflexionar sobre el camino continuo hacia una sociedad más justa y equitativa.
- Reconozcamos que este camino hacia la justicia social está profundamente entrelazado con la justicia ambiental.
- Reconozcamos que el cambio climático afecta desproporcionadamente a las personas de color, las más vulnerables y marginadas.

(Papa Francisco, Laudato Si' – adaptación)

Paz, El Equipo Verde

REFLEXIONES

"Pero el Consolador, el Espíritu Santo, a quien el Padre enviará en Mi nombre, Él les enseñará todas las cosas, y les recordará todo lo que les he dicho." (Juan 14:26)

El materialismo de nuestra sociedad nos atrae a concentrarnos más en lo que queremos que en lo que Dios quiere para nosotros. El relativismo de nuestro mundo nos dice que debemos ser tolerantes con todas las cosas, que no hay una verdad absoluta. Ore al Espíritu Santo para que transforme nuestras vidas y guíe nuestros pensamientos, palabras y obras. Lo que pone en su mente, su corazón y su alma afecta sus acciones. Ponga cosas buenas dentro y saldrán cosas buenas.

Estimado Feligrés

En mis inicios como católico, solía acompañar a un grupo de personas a evangelizar puerta a puerta y en las calles. Antes de hablar de nuestro Señor y los puntos esenciales del Kerigma a quienes se mostraban receptivos, siempre queríamos determinar quién era Jesús para ellos, preguntándoles: "¿Quién dicen que es Jesús?". Por las respuestas, sabíamos quiénes no creían y quiénes sí. Los que no creían decían que Jesús era un buen maestro como Buda, un profeta como Mahoma, o simplemente un hombre bueno y santo, etc. Pero quienes sí creían siempre confesaban: "Él es el Hijo de Dios y Dios".

San Pablo nos dice hoy que nadie puede confesar con valentía que "Jesús es el Señor" a menos que esté lleno del Espíritu Santo. Dios, el Espíritu Santo, descendió sobre Jesús cuando Juan lo bautizó. En toda su misión, comulgó con el Espíritu. Y, en aquel primer Pentecostés, después de su resurrección en el Espíritu, derramó el Espíritu Santo sobre los apóstoles y toda la Iglesia, quienes se llenaron de intensa alegría, santa valentía y un amor que trascendió el temor humano. Inflamados por el Espíritu, predicaron con valentía y convicción, dispuestos a vivir, servir, sufrir y morir por nuestro Señor Jesús y el Evangelio.

Hoy, se nos invita a recordar y renovar nuestra Confirmación, cuando fuimos sellados permanentemente con el don del Espíritu Santo. Ya no somos un pueblo en tinieblas, que aún duerme el sueño de la muerte. Un cristiano que se ha entregado voluntariamente al Espíritu es alguien que está plenamente animado y vivo en él. Con valentía y entusiasmo ofrecerá y pondrá en práctica el servicio y los talentos que el Espíritu ha manifestado (1 Cor 12:7) para fortalecernos y edificarnos con amor, a San Luis y al Cuerpo de Cristo.

Hoy, querido hermano o hermana, bebamos profundamente del Espíritu Santo. ¡Que Él encienda en nosotros el fuego de su amor! Todos nuestros esfuerzos en el mundo, por pequeños o grandes que sean, carecerán de buen fruto sin la ayuda del Espíritu. ¡Seamos todos inspectores de frutos, no jueces! "El fruto del Espíritu es amor, gozo, paz, paciencia, benignidad, generosidad, fidelidad, mansedumbre y dominio propio" (Gálatas 5:22-23).

¡Viva Cristo Rey!

Si te interesa participar en el programa de ESL para mejorar tus habilidades de inglés, ¡mantente al tanto en otoño cuando el programa regrese! ¡Que Dios bendiga a todos los participantes!

On Monday, May 19th, some of the members of our Spanish Community who participated in the ESL (English as a Second Language) Program led by the Caldwell Dominican Sisters of Saint Dominic gathered for an end of year celebration.

We are inspired by our community's dedication and commitment to learning English. We are also grateful for the Sisters and the beautiful way they put their Dominican charism as teachers and preachers to work for our Spanish Community.

PRAY FOR LIFE

Let there arise to God the Creator a heartfelt and worldwide prayer on behalf of life.

Prayer is the opposite dynamic of "pro-choice" or "choice to die", because those ideas assert the primacy of the individual, while prayer asserts the primacy of God. Prayer for life, moreover, does not simply ask God to end the culture of death but commits us to be active in fighting for the vulnerable.

The Gospel of Life 100

Lord, unite your people in praise and thanksgiving for life, in repentance for taking it, and in supplication for protecting it. Amen

Order of Christian Initiation of Adults

As Baptized Catholics, we are called to share our faith and invite others to become fully initiated Catholics. The OCIA process is a spiritual journey and the formation process for welcoming adults to become part of our Catholic Church. The weekly OCIA sessions will begin on October 6th in the Parish Center following the 9:00 am Mass.

Who participates in OCIA?

- Unbaptized adults who would like to explore becoming Catholic or adults baptized in another Christian faith who desire to become Catholic.
- Baptized Catholics who want to receive the Sacraments of Holy Eucharist and/or Confirmation.
- Catholics interested in deepening their relationship with Jesus.

If you or someone you know has not received Holy Eucharist and/or Confirmation or is a non-Catholic interested in our faith, we welcome you to participate in OCIA. For more information, please contact Kaye and Tony Riolo at 973-226-0209, ext. 30 or OCIA@stalscaldwell.org.

THINK GREEN

Juneteenth is not only a celebration of the emancipation of enslaved African Americans and the enduring struggle for freedom, justice, and equality, but it is also a call to action:

- Let us encourage each other to reflect on the ongoing journey toward a more just and equitable society.
- Let us recognize that this social justice journey is deeply intertwined with environmental justice.
- Let us acknowledge that climate change disproportionately affects people of color, the most vulnerable and marginalized.

REFLECTIONS

"The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." (John 14:26)

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us. The relativism of our world tells us that we should be tolerant of all things, that there is no absolute truth. Pray to the Holy Spirit to transform our lives and to guide our thoughts, words and actions. What you put in your mind, heart, and soul affects your actions. Put good things in and good things will come out.
