WELCOME

When Jesus taught us the "Our Father" prayer, he showed us the power of mercy in the line, "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

As we are all in need of salvation from our sins, we need God's forgiveness. And to receive God's forgiveness, Jesus commands that we must first be forgiving of the sins of others. As difficult as this is, in the end, it is a very good exchange!

And speaking of forgiveness, Divine Mercy Sunday concludes the Octave of Easter. This devotion is an extension of our Church's love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Jesus has suffered so much for our salvation and yearns to show us mercy, if only we are willing to come to him and ask forgiveness. Please, if you have not already, take time for the Sacrament of Reconciliation before Easter, and thank Jesus for the gift of mercy. There will be a bulletin insert next weekend explaining this coming feast of mercy, or you can learn more on-line by visiting elcatholics.org/mercy.

Lenten Activities: Our Wednesday Lenten Series entitled, Jesus, the Bridegroom, continues this week at St. John after the 5:30pm Mass. Our Friday Fish Fry will have musical entertainment this week from 5:30-6:30pm in the gym from Paige Heidrich & Company. Please stay for the 7:00pm Stations of the Cross at St. Thomas!

And our Monthly Senior Mass has been moved to Wednesday, April 9, to avoid Holy Week. Come for the Rosary at 9:30am, Mass at 10:00am, and a reception to follow at St. Thomas on April 9. There have been a number of faith-based films coming to the theaters lately, like Season 5 of The Chosen. Thank you for supporting such films and challenging Hollywood's status quo.

Fasting isn't just a practice for Lent. This is meant to be a weekly spiritual discipline in our lives that reminds us of the cost of our salvation (Jesus' ultimate sacrifice) and connects us to the poor and hungry around the world. The Holy Communion fast that we practice each week before attending Mass is a minimum threshold. Feel free to go above the letter of the law.

One who is to receive the Most Holy Eucharist is to abstain from any food or drink, with the exception only of water and medicine, for at least the period of one hour before receiving Holy Communion. Exceptions are made for the sick and the aged. (Note: While chewing gum is not food exactly, it breaks the fast in spirit as it is a candy, so please never chew gum at Mass or in church.)

Likewise, the US bishops have lifted the requirement to abstain from meat on Fridays outside of Lent; however, we are urged to make some sacrifice each Friday in remembrance of the Passion of Jesus Christ. To be honest, I find it easier to remember this penance if I simply avoid meat every Friday, but the bishops have given us leeway to choose a penance to perform each week.

May this season of penance help us to draw ever closer to Jesus, our Lord of Life!

Mid-Year Annual Report

On Wednesday, March 26, Fr. Gordon held a Mid-Year Annual Report meeting to review our status and programming updates for the first part of the current fiscal year.

Did you know...

1. Mass attendance is up at both St. Thomas Aquinas and St. John Student Center!
2. Around 30 people will be entering the Church at the Easter Vigil this year; 6 of them are children. Another 20 people have begun the process to join next year.
3. There are several regular opportunities for formation and fellowship: Monthly Senior Mass and Ministry, First Saturday Presentations, Hallow subscriptions, First Wednesday Organ Recitals, etc.
4. Stations of the Cross are offered during Lent at 12:15 pm at SJSC and at 7:00 pm at STA (right after the Knights of Columbus Fish Fry in the Parish School Gym!).
5. The televised Outreach Mass celebrated 40 years of broadcasting this December! The Outreach Mass reaches well over 5,000 people each week.
6. We have many ministries out in the community providing help to those who need it most. Check out the Walking with Moms in Need group, either of the St. Vincent de Paul conferences, and our Knights of Columbus.
7. Our Parish School opened its doors for its 75th school year and provides Catholic Education to 341 pre-school through 8th grade students!
8. This year, through the Light the Way campaign, the Heritage Gala for Campus Ministry, and the Parish School 75th Anniversary, our community gave over $430,000!
9. Last summer the parish kicked-off a multi-year facelift for our Parish School that will continue this year with classroom renovations, a new secured office vestibule, and more!
10. We are preparing for the upcoming Stewardship for Saints & Scholars launching in August! Along with that, we will plan in our parish budget to complete crucial capital projects in our churches and school buildings over the next few years.

To view the full slide presentation from the ELCC Mid-Year Annual Report Meeting, visit

St. John Food Cupboard Needs

The poverty rate for Ingham County is almost 16% while Michigan is at 13.5%, US Census date. Your donation of food items, money and volunteering your time can make a difference.

This week, we are in need of salt and pepper, spices, sugar, toothpaste and toothbrushes.

Last week, we considered how praying the Liturgy of the Hours allows us to stay in touch with the liturgical seasons and feasts that are celebrated throughout the year. While cycling through the Church calendar each year helps to bring about a certain order and stability in our prayer life, the Liturgy of the Hours is primarily based another cycle: the four-week psalter.

The psalter is an ordering of the psalms prayed over the course of four weeks. While the Liturgy of the Hours is also composed of other elements (readings, New Testament canticles, intercessions, etc.), praying the psalms is at the heart of this liturgy.

So, why pray the psalms? In her book, The Everyday Catholic's Guide to the Liturgy of the Hours, Daria Sockey answers that question simply and profoundly:

In the psalms of the Liturgy of the Hours, you will meet Jesus.

You will pray with Him and in Him.

And Jesus will pray with you and in you! Jesus Himself said that the psalms were written about Him:

Everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and the psalms must be fulfilled. (Luke 24:44)

Not only are the psalms fulfilled in Jesus, but these are the very same prayers that Jesus Himself prayed! Growing up as a young Jewish boy, Jesus would have been taught how to pray the Psalms by Mary and Joseph in Nazareth. Jesus would have prayed these psalms often at the synagogue and knew the words by heart – words that fueled His union with the Father.

If growing as a disciple means to imitate Jesus more closely, then praying the psalms in the Liturgy of the Hours is a great place to start!

-Fr. Riley

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC – RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Allure of Being Right

It wasn't a real question.

"The law of Moses says we should stone her. What do you say?" the Pharisees asked Jesus as they brought the adulterous woman before him. But they weren't really asking. They didn't care what Jesus' answer was. They didn't ask his opinion because they wanted to know. They asked because they wanted to use his words against him.

Righteousness, truth — that wasn't the goal. The goal was being right.

And in the middle of the whole scene, dragged before Jesus, used as a literal prop in this staged drama, is a woman. A real flesh-and-blood woman.

I find myself wanting to know more about her. She had been "caught in the act," they claimed, but I wonder what that even means. With whom was this act committed, and what were the reasons for her participation in it? Was she coerced? Was she scared? Was she confused? Was it really a cut-and-dry, black-and-white situation of adultery, of lust, of making the wrong decision?

We will never know the answers to these questions, and it doesn't matter — it's not our business. God knows the answers. God knows the truth of the matter: what she did, what she chose, what she felt. Because she wasn't a prop to Him. She was a person.

When God looks at us, he sees more than the worst decisions we've ever made.

I worry that we use one another as props even today, when we try like the Pharisees to illustrate "What is Right." We have a terrible tendency to see only decisions, and in doing so we dehumanize the people behind them.

Too often, we don't care about righteousness or truth. We just care about being right.

Prayer of Community

O God, Help us to see each other as You see us, not by our faults or failings, but by our identity as Your own. Give us Your eyes to see, Your heart to love. Amen.

LIVE THE LITURGY – INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Go, and sin no more," Jesus tells the woman caught in adultery. Her life, like ours, has been saved. She, like us, has a chance for a new beginning. So he begs her, and he begs us: be changed by it. Let the mercy transform you.

Go, and sin no more.

Readings for Sunday, April 13 PALM SUNDAY

Lk 19:28-40: Procession with the Palms

Is 50:4-7: The Lord God is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

Ps 22: My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Phil 2:6-11: Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.

Lk 22:14-23:56: Then he took the bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me."

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

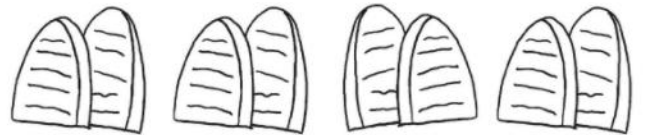

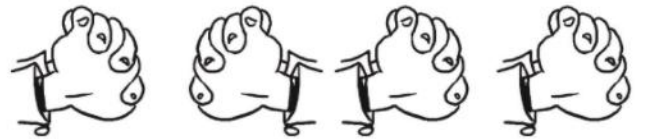

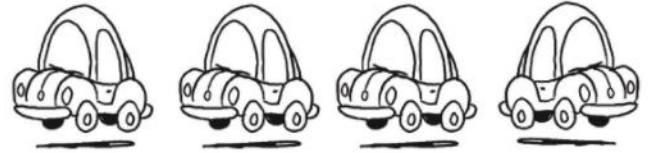

GOSPEL

In Bible days, people who did wrong were stoned to death. Jesus changed that. He said, "If you have never done anything wrong, throw the first stone." Everyone makes mistakes. A rock can hurt people, animals, cars, and houses. When you say bad things about someone, you are throwing a rock at them. The rock might come back and hurt you, too. If you can not say something nice about someone, pray for them.

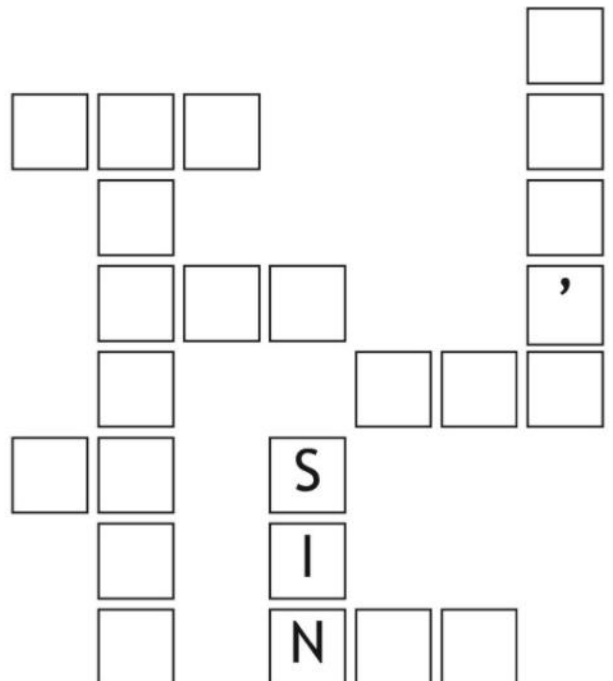

PUZZLE

Circle the picture that is facing the wrong way. Then color in all the pictures.

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

You may go now, but don't sin anymore.

PRAYER

Lord, help me pray for others rather than judge them.

Marriage & the Blended Family Retreat

📅 May 23-24

📍 St. John the Evangelist, Jackson

Engaged couples preparing for a blended family or married couples who have already blended their families are invited to the Marriage and the Blended Family Retreat at St. John the Evangelist in Jackson, May 23-24.

This retreat, based on the Smart Stepfamilies program by Ron L. Deal, addresses the unique challenges of stepfamily life—co-parenting, step-parenting, loss, finances, and more—while providing practical tools for success. Led by experienced facilitators who have navigated their own blended family journeys, this retreat offers a supportive space to learn, share, and grow together.

Visit dioceseoflansing.org/blendedfamilies to view more information and register.

Matthew 25 | March 30 & April 6 Southside Community Kitchen

Established in 1987 and using the St Casimir kitchen until the parish closed, the Southside Community Kitchen has experienced many changes in the last few years. They include moving and renovating, closing and then reopening after the pandemic, new partnerships, and growing to meet the many needs of their neighbors. Last year, Southside Community Kitchen served a well-balanced, nourishing hot lunch to more than 8,000 people who call Lansing's southside home. 35 local churches and several community service groups help ensure that our hungry people of the area thrive in a caring, dignified Christian environment.

Universal Prayers Including for the Sick & Deceased

Trusting in our heavenly Father's mercy and compassion, let us lift up to him our petitions for ourselves and the world:

That Christ may continue to draw holy men to lead his flock and be his ambassadors of reconciliation to the Church and the world.

That the Lord may heal the wounds and resentment that sow discord and separation within families and communities.

That our celebration of the sacraments may bear abundant fruit within this assembly and in the wider community.

That the Lord may bring comfort and healing to all who are homebound or ill, and those listed in our book of prayer.

That in his infinite mercy, God may joyfully welcome those who have gone before us in faith all the Holy Souls in Purgatory.

Loving Father, hear these prayers and answer them, we ask, in accordance with your divine providence, through Christ our Lord.

No Matter How Much You're Hurting, No Marriage is Beyond Hope

In marriage, communication is more than just talking.

At some point, did you or your spouse stop sharing things that were important? The distance between a husband and wife can sometimes feel like it is so wide it cannot be repaired... but it CAN!

Save your marriage and your family! It's worth it. The next Retrouaille Marriage Saving Weekend will be May 2-4, 2025 in Farmington Hills, Michigan. To learn more, go to HelpOurMarriage.org or call 800-470-2230.
