WELCOME

Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand."

In today's short Gospel passage, Jesus identifies himself as the Good Shepherd. This means that we are his sheep, his flock, who must listen for and heed his voice. Although Jesus is clear that no one can take his sheep out of his hand, we are all still free to willfully wander from the fold. Let us continue to pray for all who have lapsed from the faith, especially due to the scandals of the Church. Even should someone choose to wander away, they are still our brothers and sisters in Christ, and we will never stop praying for them, loving them or reaching out to them. The door is always open! If you know of someone who would like to explore the Catholic faith, please call the office or email Jen Brown (jbrown@elcatholics.org), who coordinates our Becoming Catholic ministry.

As we celebrate Mother's Day this weekend, may God bless our mothers, grandmothers, and godmothers! Let us also ask the Blessed Mother to guard our families from all physical or spiritual harm. As May is the Month of Our Lady, I strongly encourage families to pray the Rosary together, even if just for one decade. In this busy age when it is so difficult to sit down together even for a meal, taking a moment to pray together for the needs of the family can be a treasured experience. For more information about the Rosary, visit: theholynosary.org. May 13 is the memorial of Our Lady of Fatima. Let us ask her intercession for world peace and for the good of the Catholic Church as it selects a new pope!

Please pray for our youth to hear God's call on this World Day of Prayer for Vocations! While appreciating all vocations, the Church focuses this day on vocations to the ordained ministries, consecrated life in all its forms, secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life. This coming Saturday, May 17, the diocese will ordain 12 men to the diaconate at St. Thomas. And St. Thomas will also host the Presbyteral Ordination on June 14, where the diocese will ordain seven men to the priesthood. There will be no 9:00am Saturday Mass on those ordination days. Please pray for these candidates!

Catholic Radio is now on the air in Lansing! Ave Maria Radio is available on 1390AM, or you can access it On Demand via AveMariaRadio.net.

We have surpassed 87% of our Diocesan Services Appeal Goal for 2025! Thank you for your support. For further details or to pledge online, visit: dioceseoflansing.org/DSA.

An Ounce of Prevention: As Portugal and Spain experienced an unprecedented blackout at the end of April, spring is a good time to review your family emergency plans for anything from fires to severe weather and power outages. Do your family members know where to meet up after an emergency? Or how to reconnect if communication is lost? And it is always helpful to have a reserve of food, water, medicine, flashlights, candles, cleaning agents and the like. As the Boy Scouts say, "Always be prepared!" Helpful advice is available for just about every occasion at ready.gov or michigan.gov/michiganprepares. Be safe out there!

May the Lord of the Harvest send workers into His vineyard!

MEET, GREET & GROW

ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER GUILD Spring Meet Up

Sunday, May 18 @ 3:00 pm at the STA Pavilion

For more information, contact Sara Pettit at spettit@elcatholics.org

Fr. Corey Bilodeau, Parochial Vicar:

The spring semester has been great as the Lord has clearly been moving in so many ways. From the very first Night Mass of the semester to our Grad Mass, our students have been coming to know Jesus. Some of my favorite moments this semester have been getting on campus to hear confessions and to say Mass After Class. I love that I can bring the sacraments to students on campus. Another cool thing that I have enjoyed are the Candlelight Masses we have done, especially those that have been our 7:00pm Sunday Masses. It was amazing to see everyone come together giving God the glory.

One more great thing about spring semester is Lent. With Ash Wednesday and Holy Week, it draws countless students through these doors. Even with Ash Wednesday being during spring break this year, I was able to celebrate with the students while we were on an Alternative Spring Break trip in Mississippi. I know this Lent was impactful for a lot of people. I had the opportunity to hear many confessions during the season, with over a hundred just during Holy Week. God's not dead; He is surely alive. I know the Lord desires to do more on this campus. All we have to do is Trust Him and Follow Him.

Joshua Janda, Associate Campus Minister:

Howdy, everyone! Wow, this semester and year flew by! It feels like only yesterday that I was starting this job. This semester has been great! We continued to offer small groups this semester with 8 different groups meeting across campus and here at St. John. Perhaps the biggest blessing of this semester came during the Spring Retreat. Being able to hear the testimonies of students I had been walking with in the fall and seeing how the Lord is working in their life is such a rare blessing in ministry so I count it as an immense joy. I cannot wait to see what other blessings await this summer and into next year. Peace and Blessings!

Nourished and Formed by the Word of God

Last week we learned that praying the Liturgy of the Hours is a great way to both prepare for Mass and to extend our praise and thanksgiving at Mass to other times of the day/week. I also referenced how the Catechism teaches us that the Eucharist is the “source and summit” of our lives. Now, I’d like to look at another essential aspect of the Christian life: being nourished and formed by the Word of God.

Each Sunday we hear three readings from Sacred Scripture which serve to instruct, nourish, and form us into the people God calls us to be. However, the Church urges us not only to listen to the Word of God at Mass, but to immerse ourselves in God’s holy word throughout the week. While there are many ways to engage the Scriptures, the Liturgy of the Hours allows us to not only read God’s word but to make it our very prayer.

That means when we pick up the Liturgy of the Hours, we use the words that God has given us as our own prayer – kind of like praying with the words Jesus taught His disciples in the “Our Father,” (which is also incorporated into the Liturgy of the Hours). Pope Benedict XVI likened praying this way to a child learning how to speak:

When a child begins to speak... he learns how to express his own feelings, emotions, and needs with words that do not belong to him innately but that he learns from his parents and from those who surround him... and little by little he makes them his own, the words received from his parents become his words. (General Audience, Wednesday, June 22, 2011)

This is what happens when we pray the Liturgy of the Hours! The many psalms, Old and New Testament canticles, along with dozens of short readings from the letters of the New Testament all become our prayer when praying this liturgy. May our increased familiarity with God’s word shape our prayer, that He may continue to form us into the disciples we’re called to be.

In Christ, Fr. Riley

Fourth Sunday of Easter

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC – Beneath the Surface

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Resembling Jesus

I once wrote an article about several women residents of a local nursing home. In researching the piece, I discovered that they had grown up in the same neighborhood as my grandmother, and that one of the women was, in fact, my grandmother's dearest childhood friend.

When I visited this woman to take her photograph, she took a long look at my face, and I could see in her eyes that she was reaching back in her memory across the years. She said: "You resemble her." I wept on the way home.

My grandmother died when I was nine, and for the last several years of her life she suffered from Alzheimer's disease. I have always deeply grieved the time we lost, the relationship we could have had. I have hazy fragments of memory from before her illness that lead me to believe we loved each other very much.

Being told I look like my grandmother by someone who knew her well – being identified as belonging to her in some way – was one of the more beautiful things to happen to me.

When we love someone, we want to be associated with them. We want to be recognized as theirs somehow. And if we love Christ, we should want to be known as belonging to him. We should want those who see us to know we are his.

The only way we can resemble Jesus is through love. It is his most recognizable quality, his most famous trait. This is how all will know that you are my disciples.

As Catholics, we are always talking about finding ways to live our faith boldly, unapologetically, publicly. Good – we should! But if we want people to know we are Catholic, we should love them. Bravely. Recklessly. Sacrificially.

As he loves us.

LIVE THE LITURGY – INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

There is an invitation in the empty tomb and the abandoned burial cloths. What great things could we accomplish, if we only believe that Christ has conquered death? Go forth this Easter season, boldly embracing the hope of the resurrection.

DEVOTIONS, EXPLAINED!

Hail Mary

The words of the Hail Mary – undoubtedly the most recognizable Catholic prayer after the Lord's Prayer – are deeply rooted in scripture. The opening lines of the prayer are taken from the words of the angel Gabriel at the Annunciation – "Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee." This line is known as the Angelic Salutation. The following words – "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus" – echo the sentiments expressed by Elizabeth at the Visitation.

The Angelic Salutation is regarded as the earliest devotional prayer to Mary, since it forms the very first words spoken to her as the Mother of God, but Catholics did not begin to utilize the Hail Mary prayer in its current form until around the 11th century.

An in-depth explanation of each line of this prayer is provided in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2676-2677.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

Jesus said, "Love each other as I have loved you." He died on the cross so that your sins and mine might be forgiven. Jesus was human like you and me. He shared his food with friends. He visited and healed the sick. He cried when his friends died. He told stories to help people learn about his Father in heaven. When you show love for others, Jesus smiles because he is very proud of you.

That the Lord may protect the Church and her leaders from persecution when they teach in Jesus' name.

That all in heaven and on earth may be united by the Spirit in their worship of the one true God.

That those who are brokenhearted over the loss of a loved one may experience God's healing and consoling love.

That all members of this faith community may receive the mercy of God for themselves and, with his help, offer it to others.

That the Holy Spirit will inspire and strengthen the Cardinal-electors as they choose a new Holy Father to lead us.

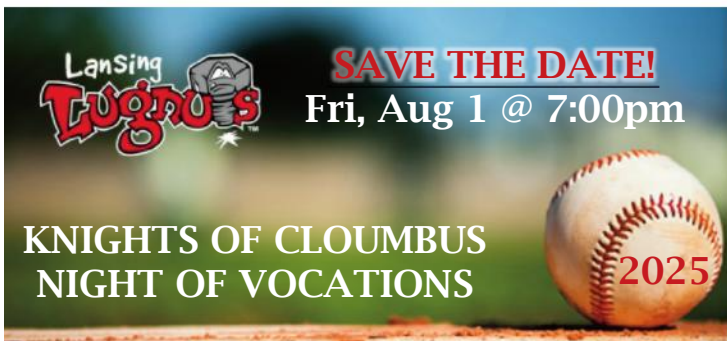

That our brothers and sisters who are sick or suffering from poor health experience the healing power of our Risen Lord, especially Irene Hurst, Evan Bates, James Phillips, and those listed in our book of prayer.

That all who have died in Christ may rise to new life with him in the Resurrection, especially Norina Malinaro and all the Holy Souls in Purgatory.
