PARISH BULLETIN DEADLINE: Articles must be received by noon on Wednesdays (typed format).

PRAYER TREE: 255-4600

Confident at His coming. People have been predicting the second coming of Jesus since shortly after His first coming in Bethlehem. The truth of His arrival time is securely hidden in the heart of the Father. When Jesus spoke about the signs and seasons preceding His second coming, His purpose was not to pinpoint dates or calendar years. His purpose simply was to keep us alert and watchful. Our Lord would have us keep company with Jesus, calmly and confidently, until He does come in the final glory. The landscape of history is cluttered with "end times" clock watches. But if we truly believe, we won't be watching our clocks, but watching our Jesus instead.

Thankful always. Sometimes a thing can be so prominent we fail to see it. God is the one being necessary for our happiness and yet what little notice we take of Him. We thank many people for being kind to us but we fail to thank God who is the source of all kindness. It is good then that we have a Thanksgiving Day set aside every year for giving special thanks to God. Having Thanksgiving Day reminds us to make everyday of the year a hymn of thanksgiving to God, with bowed heads and lifted praise for all that He has given us.

Stewardship Thoughts: God has given each of us some special abilities. It is important that we use them to help one another; passing on to others the many blessings God has given us.

Vocation Views: As Christians, our sole inheritance is Christ; everything else is temporal and fleeting. Let us rejoice in His calling, that we might have His strength in order to respond to the invitation to "Come! Follow me." (Psalm 16)

Is your marriage a gift? Would you like to help engaged couples in our parish who are getting ready to celebrate the Sacrament of Matrimony? We are looking for sponsor couples to work with engaged couples to go through their pre-marital inventory. We offer training and support. If you are interested in learning more, please contact

The Holy Father Speaks... As we reflect on the eighth commandment, "You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor", Christians are called to be truthful not only in our words but in our entire way of acting towards others. Our ultimate model in this regard is Jesus himself. He is the truth in person who, at his trial before Pilate, revealed that he came into this world to testify to the truth. In the mystery of this life, death and resurrection, He disclosed the deepest meaning of our life on earth, and invited us to share his divine life. His gift of the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of truth, enables us to become adoptive sons and daughters of our heavenly Father and to dwell in his love as brothers and sisters. When a person is not communicating authentically, it is a serious matter because it inhibits relationships and therefore inhibits love. "Where there is a lie, there is no love." Gossiping kills. It kills because the tongue kills, like a knife. Be careful, the gossip "is a terrorist because he or she throws a bomb and leaves." Christians are not exceptional men and women, we are, however, children of our heavenly Father, who is good and does not disappoint us, and places in our hearts the love for our brothers and sisters. God is truth. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor means living as children of God, acting in accordance with his will and trusting in him. It bids us to live this new life full, and thus to bear true witness to God's saving love, made incarnate in the humanity of Christ our Lord. "I trust God, this is the great truth."

ALWAYS TRY TO BE KIND.

THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

"He who is generous to the needy honors Him..." Proverbs 14:31

Our annual Thanksgiving food pantry appeal helps us to stock the shelves of our food pantry. Volunteers prepare boxes of food each week to distribute to people in our community. This food allows over 200 families each month to prepare meals for their families...meals that they may not be able to serve without your help!

The following items are especially needed this year: cereal, pancake mix and syrup, peanut butter, noodles and pasta sauce, instant potatoes and rice.

We will begin collecting items this weekend and will continue collecting them through Sunday, November 25th. You can bring your contributions any time and drop them off at the table located in the center of the church.

The collection taken on Thanksgiving Day will be used for our Special Needs Fund.
Please make checks payable to "Special Needs."

Thank you for reaching out to the poor among us.

Thanksgiving Mass will be on Thursday, November 22nd at 9:00 a.m.

There will be no 7:00 a.m. or 12:10 p.m. Masses and no 7:00 p.m. Eucharistic Adoration on this day.

NOVEMBER: A MONTH OF REMEMBRANCE

During the month of November, we are called in a special way to remember and pray for "our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection."

We have placed "A Book of Eternal Light" at the entrance of the church in which we list all members of the Church of Corpus Christi who have gone before us since our beginning on August 1, 1964. There is also another book at the entrance of the church in which you can write the names of your beloved family and friends who have died and we will remember them in prayer this month.

INTRODUCTION TO THE DEVOUT LIFE

By St. Francis de Sales

Whether you are just beginning your spiritual journey or are more advanced in the spiritual life, you'll be able to apply this timeless wisdom immediately. Let St. Francis de Sales illuminate the path to holiness and strengthen your desire to walk that road with the Lord. Themes include: Incorporating prayer and sacraments into a busy schedule, growing in virtue, battling wisely against temptation, and making spiritual progress through daily, monthly, and yearly exercises.

This book and others are $4 and can be found in the book rack downstairs in the lower gathering space.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Christ the light shine

It used to be that sensible people shrugged off most apocalyptic talk as a religious scare tactic. After all, only Chicken Little seriously believes the sky is falling and life as we know it is ending! Yet the present global situation makes apocalypse sound pertinent, even descriptive of the texture of our times. The light of hope can seem dimmer than ever; nonetheless, when fear begins to sound like the wisest course and paralysis the only option, hold fast to the Good News and its promise of light and life!

TODAY'S READINGS: Daniel 12:1-3; Hebrews 10:11-14, 18; Mark 13:24-32 (158). "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away."

Monday, Nov 19, 2018

Live your faith day by day

You may know "Day by Day," the popular song from the 1970s musical Godspell. The refrain, which was adapted from a 13th-century English prayer, includes the lines: "Three things I pray: To see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly, follow thee more nearly." Those words pretty well summarize the yearning in the heart of all Christians. It begins with "seeing clearly" because it's hard to love or follow Jesus unless you do your best to focus on him and his message. The blind man who begged Jesus "Lord, please let me see" spoke for all of us. Spend a moment today reflecting on blind spots in your own faith—areas where doubt, fear, ego, or simple neglect have carried the day thus far.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 1:1-4; 2:1-5; Luke 18:35-43 (497). "Have sight; your faith has saved you."

Tuesday, Nov 20, 2018

Mercy is the great equalizer

"Mercy that is truly Christian is also the most perfect incarnation of 'equality' between people," wrote Pope John Paul II in his encyclical Rich in Mercy. Our compassion compels us to see the dignity of persons in need. They become lovable simply because they are. Despite any faults, poor choices, weaknesses, or circumstances beyond their control, those in need are worthy of alms (from the Greek words for compassion and mercy)—for Christ's sake. Strive to see in others what Jesus saw in tax collectors, sinners, and the least among us: the face of God.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 3:1-6, 14-22; Luke 19:1-10 (498). "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham."

Wednesday, Nov 21, 2018

MEMORIAL OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Moment by moment, grace upon grace

Make a list of what you've been taught about Mary of Nazareth: virgin, mother of Jesus, Mother of God, conceived immaculately, assumed into heaven bodily—it's an astonishing list. Her life was "full of grace," yet the Bible says little of her beyond the first moments of Jesus' life and the last. Church tradition supplies the rest, not to invent history but to illustrate how this Jewish girl's life was made holy by her choices and those of the family that nurtured her. Our families become holy in the same way, one decision at a time.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 4:1-11; Luke 19:11-28 (499). "To everyone who has, more will be given, but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away."

Thursday, Nov 22, 2018

THANKSGIVING DAY

Gratitude is good for the body and soul

The gratitude you feel on Thanksgiving is good for your mental health. Practicing daily gratitude, psychologists say, results in higher levels of energy, alertness, enthusiasm, and determination. Better yet, people who feel grateful are more likely to feel loved and repay kindnesses. Benedictine Brother David Stendl-Rast, one of the founders of gratefulness.org, says that, by freely choosing gratitude, we can "create a better life for ourselves and for others." Now there's something to be thankful for.

TODAY'S READINGS: Sirach 50:22-24; 1 Corinthians 1:3-9; Luke 17:11-19 (943-947). "Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?"

Friday, Nov 23, 2018

MEMORIAL OF CLEMENT I, POPE, MARTYR

Take a letter

We tend to think that important letter-writing in the early church was limited to the New Testament, Saint Paul being the star correspondent. But others wrote letters to Christian communities, like the third bishop of Rome, Clement, who wrote to the same church in Corinth that Paul had tried to straighten out earlier. Though we don't know much else about Clement, we know he lived in Rome at the end of first century, only a generation or two after Peter and Paul had died there. Clement mentions their deaths, writing of Peter, "Let us set before our eyes the illustrious apostles. Peter . . . endured not one or two, but numerous labors, and when he had finally suffered martyrdom, departed to the place of glory due to him." Let us recall those early martyrs who gave everything for Christ and his church.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 10:8-11; Luke 19:45-48 (501). "Jesus entered the temple area and proceeded to drive out those who were selling things."

Saturday, Nov 24, 2018

MEMORIAL OF ANDREW DŨNG-LẠC, PRIEST, AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS

Culture gets holy; holiness gets culture

In 1988, when Pope John Paul II canonized the Vietnam martyrs whose feast we celebrate today, he used the opportunity to speak of the value of enculturation. The pope praised the martyrs and witnesses for initiating dialogue among various religious groups and proposing ways to put Christian faith in action that were suited to Asian culture, such as teaching that "one should respect and venerate one's ancestors according to the customs of the land in light of the mystery of the Resurrection." Out of respect for these humble and courageous martyrs, do your best to respect the customs and religious practices of all faiths as you freely practice your own cultural expressions of faith.

TODAY'S READINGS: Revelation 11:4-12; Luke 20:27-40 (502). "Some of the scribes said in reply, 'Teacher, you have answered well.'"

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time
