PRAYER TREE: 255-4600

Reading the signs. Like generations of Jews before Him, John the Baptist grew up looking for the Messiah. Waiting, preparing His heart for the day God would send a Redeemer. But even as the "voice in the wilderness" John needed God's guidance to recognize the Chosen One. He was given a sign: "On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, He is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit." So John started on the long road of his ministry. He listened and heard God's call to preach repentance, baptizing those who came with water. And John waited, watching for the sign, until the day his Messiah appeared on the banks of the Jordan. His obedience and faithful reading of the signs enabled John to fulfill God's promise in his life. Just like John we need to be faithful watchers today. Take a moment to ask yourself: Have I heard God's call to my special task in life? Am I busy on the banks of my Jordan? Am I watching for the coming of Jesus?

Plunge into the river Jordan and what do you feel? The cool refreshing water of the Father's love, the purifying water of Jesus' redemption and the thirst quenching water of the Holy Spirit. It is the first step on our path as we follow the perfect example of our Savior. Dive in and rise again ready to carry His gospel to the world.

St Mary's High School Carnival

This year's annual carnival event to support Catholic Education in the Bismarck area is February 1st-3rd. Corpus Christi, along with the other four Bismarck Parishes, are joining together in an effort to make the 68th Anniversary of the carnival the most successful one yet and we need your help. We need volunteers to help with Corpus Christi's meals and midway games. Please stop by the sign up table downstairs after mass for sign up information or log on to our website at www.corpuschristibismarck.com and click on the St. Mary's Carnival link. If you have any questions contact the office at 255-4600.

Stewardship Thoughts: Give of your time, talent, and treasure until your heart knows that you have done something for God.

Vocation Views: God's spirit is given to each person for the common good. What are your gifts? Are you willing to share them for the good of others? (1 Corinthians 12:4-11)

The Saint Mary's Carnival Committee would appreciate your favorite baked goods, such as breads, pies, cookies, snack mixes, fudge, candies, just to name a few, for the BAKED GOODS room. You can also bring in previously enjoyed books to sell in the BOOK ROOM. Also, cakes and cupcakes are needed for the CAKE WALK. If you have any questions about drop off times, or need items picked up, please give Rita Ritter a call at 701-226-2882 or email rmritter@bis.midco.net.

The Saint Mary's Central High School Carnival Auction committee is looking for NEW items to be donated for the Carnival; both silent and live auction items. If you can help in anyway with new items or assistance with the auction, contact Dick Heidt at 701-220-8181 or Dave Fleckenstein at 701-400-5037.

MASS INTENTIONS

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead, and the greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass. For that reason, all are encouraged to have a Mass offered for loved ones who have died, or even for the living who have some need. Corpus Christi has available dates throughout the year for different mass times. Stop in the office for more information and to request a Mass intention.

SACRAMENT OF ANOINTING will be offered at the 8:30 a.m. mass on Sunday, February 10th. This sacrament is held as part of a Eucharistic Celebration once each year as a means of providing grace of strengthening, peace, and courage to overcome the difficulties that go with the condition of serious illness and the frailty of old age. Those with serious illnesses and frailty in old age are invited to be anointed after the homily, during the mass. During the anointing, we invite all to join in prayer for those receiving the anointing. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be offered from 7:45-8:15 a.m. that morning.

The Holy Father Speaks... As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Baptism of Our Lord, we need to find out the date of our Baptism. Find out from your parents, grandparents, or godparents and celebrate the date every year. Jesus underwent a two-fold immersion at His Baptism. First, Jesus was immersed in the crowd. He unites himself to them, thus completely assuming the human condition, sharing everything with them, except sin. Jesus' Baptism in the Jordan is also an epiphany, because it takes place in the midst of the penitent people where Jesus manifests the logic and the sense of His mission. Jesus shared the people's profound desire for interior renewal. After being immersed in the water of the Jordan, Jesus was immersed in prayer, that is, in communion with the Father. Jesus begins his mission of manifesting God's love for humanity with His Baptism. Such a mission is accomplished through constant and perfect union with the Father and with the Holy Spirit. This means being continually regenerated in prayer, evangelization and apostolic works so as to give clear Christian witness. Finally, the Baptism of the Lord is an opportunity to renew our own baptismal promises and commit ourselves to live daily in a manner consistent with it. May Jesus, who saves us not through any merit of our own but in order to demonstrate the immense goodness of the Father, make us merciful towards everyone.

Welcome! Thank you for choosing to worship with us today and we hope you will return often. If you do not belong to a parish, please consider choosing Corpus Christi as your church home. You may call the parish office at 255-4600 to register.

Funeral Pre-Planning

Thinking about pre-planning a funeral leaves most people a little uneasy. However, pre-planning can give you peace of mind as you will know you have helped your family at a very difficult time. It also allows an opportunity to express preferences at this time of a final good-bye removing the burden of family members having to guess about your wishes. Our Pastoral Care Associate, Sr. Idelle Badt, is available with information and to answer any questions that you might have about this process. You can call her at the parish office at 255-4600. Pre-planning a funeral can be one of the last and greatest gifts you can give to your family.

Winter Adult Faith Formation - "Lectio (Unveiling Scripture & Tradition): Peter"

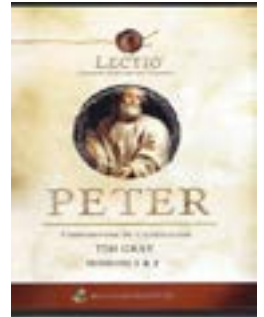

by Dr. Tim Gray

Monday Evenings 6:30-8:30 p.m.

February 4th - April 8th

Join us for a 10-week bible study as we explore the character of St. Peter. Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter that is immediately informative and relevant to our lives.

(Please register by January 28th by calling Cindy Anderst in the parish office at 701-255-4600.)

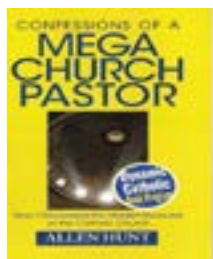

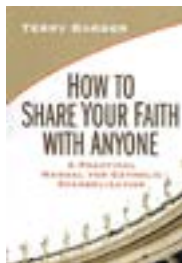

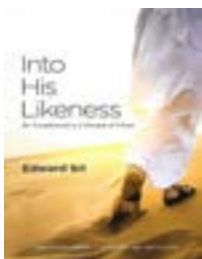

Your stepping stones back into life...

LOTUS (Looking Onward to Understanding and Serenity) is a group for men, women and young adults who have experienced a death. LOTUS meets on the 2nd & 4th Tuesdays of every month at Parkway Funeral Service, 2330 Tyler Parkway. There will be a LOTUS combined meeting on Tuesday, January 22nd at 1:00 & 7:00 p.m. with Pastor Lee Herberg. The topic will be: "Forgiveness...Where is our Higher Power?"

If you are unable to walk in the communion line to receive the Eucharist during the weekend Masses, please inform an Usher before the Mass so that an Eucharistic Minister can be directed to your seat with the Host and that you do not miss the opportunity to receive Holy Communion.

These books and more are available on the book rack downstairs in the lower gathering space.

TAIZÉ PRAYER SERVICE
Wednesday, January 23rd
7:00-8:00 p.m.

Come and join us for an hour of contemplative prayer. This ecumenical service includes singing, scripture reading and quiet times of private prayer. As part of this service, everyone lights a candle and places it in a bowl of sand. This light signifies your special prayer intention. We hope you will consider joining us. Please contact Jennifer at 701-255-4600 with any questions.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Service with a smile

Service mottos abound, ranging from “The customer is always right” to “Ours is not to question why, ours is but to do or die.” At a particular nuptial celebration in Cana, servants in the middle of a supply crisis were told to follow the instructions of a young man who made puzzling demands of them. As a result of their obedience, ordinary water became fine wine. The crisis turned into a triumph. When we listen to Jesus and act on what we hear—the very definition of “obedience”—marvels ensue. Gospel always starts out sounding incredible, until it’s reality.

TODAY’S READINGS: Isaiah 62:1-5; 1 Corinthians 12:4-11; John 2:1-11 (66). “His mother said to the servers, ‘Do whatever he tells you.’ ”

MEMORIAL OF AGNES, VIRGIN, MARTYR

The legacy lives on—the struggle as well

When Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated, the outcry from other faith leaders was immediate. Pope Paul VI called King a “prophet.” The National Conference of Catholic Bishops joined in a widespread interfaith statement, “bow[ing] together in grief before the shameful murder of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., a unique apostle of the nonviolent drive for justice . . . no service of remembrance or local memorial is equal to the greatness of his labor or the vastness of our national need.” What can your parish do with other churches in the ongoing effort to end racism?

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 5:1-10; Mark 2:18-22 (311). “The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them.”

DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE LEGAL PROTECTION OF UNBORN CHILDREN

Remember the us in them

At the heart of Roe v. Wade, the U.S. Supreme Court decision legalizing abortion, is the abbreviation v., “versus,” the antagonism, the eternal contest between “us” and “them.” Our great challenge in choosing life over death is less to beat “them” whom we can easily demonize as the “opposition” but rather to see those with whom we profoundly disagree as persons also beloved by God and saved by “The Lord [who] does not see as mortals see, the outward appearance, but the Lord [who] looks on the heart.” Part of the struggle to uphold the sanctity and value of life must be to draw close enough to the other to actually listen to and hear another human heart.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 6:10-20; Mark 2:23-28 (312). “They look on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart.”

Working together to heal the world

In developing countries around the world, missionaries of every Christian denomination work side by side to help the poor, the hungry, and the sick. Projects that provide water and medical services to remote villages are accomplished every day by people cooperating despite their religious differences. Jesus encountered resistance to his own healing ministry because he often had to cross the dividing lines of religion in order to get the job done. In this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity we may not be able to share the sacrament of Communion, but we can share the work of justice, which ultimately is the work of Jesus.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 7:1-3, 15-17; Mark 3:1-6 (313). “Then he said to them, ‘Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?’ But they were silent.”

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS DE SALES, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Listen to the doctor

What does it mean to be a “doctor of the church”? There are three dozen saints who have been given this title for shaping theology and doctrine through scholarship and writing. Some of the biggies include Saints Augustine, Jerome, and Gregory the Great. Saint Francis de Sales, a French bishop born in 1567, is also part of the esteemed group, and he is known as the “doctor of charity.” He wrote extensively (and is the patron saint of journalists), emphasizing to his readers that charity is a means of spiritual development. Take a page from Saint Francis today.

TODAY’S READINGS: Hebrews 7:25—8:6; Mark 3:7-12 (314).

“Hearing what he was doing, a large number of people came to him.”

FEAST OF THE CONVERSION OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

I once was (and often am) blind

Sometimes it seems Paul was lucky. God made it very clear to him that he needed a major attitude adjustment—what spiritual folks call a conversion of heart. If God met you on the road today, could you meet the divine gaze with a sense of peace, or would you want to beg for a second chance to live more faithfully? In prayer today ask, “Am I blind to my own need for conversion?” Pray for the grace to honestly see and to “respond to the merciful love of God who loved us first,” in the words of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

TODAY’S READINGS: Acts 22:3-16 or Acts 9:1-22; Mark 16:15-18 (519). “Immediately things like scales fell from his eyes and he regained his sight.”

Saturday, Jan 26, 2019

MEMORIAL OF TIMOTHY AND TITUS, BISHOPS

Ready to sign on?

Many ministers would probably say that serving sometimes feels like a battle for bodies and souls in need. Saint Titus, an early church leader and missionary, is the patron saint of U.S. Army chaplains. The Order of Titus Award honors outstanding performance of combat ministry in providing religious support to soldiers. Remember all those who are in the trenches—literally and figuratively—offering support in difficult circumstances of one sort or another. Consider enlisting with them today.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Timothy 1:1-8 or Titus 1:1-5 (520); Mark 3:20-21 (316). “When his relatives heard of this they set out to seize him.”
