FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

"Rejoice, O Jerusalem: Come together all you that love her; rejoice you that have been in sorrow; that you may exult..." On this 4th Sunday of Lent, Laetare Sunday - Rejoice Sunday - the Church gives us a glimpse of the joy of the Resurrection in the depths of the penitential season of Lent. On Laetare Sunday, the faithful rejoice because Christ is willing to reconcile us to His Father. During Lent, the Church offers increased opportunities for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which allows us to be reconciled with God, with others, and with ourselves. This reconciliation prepares us to be fully united with Christ. Over the last couple of weeks, Fr. Aune and I have been busy hearing the confessions of our Faith Formation Students. I commend our youngest faithful for expressing their faith through this Sacrament.

Today I figured it out, there are 17.5 hours of Confessions that will be offered at Corpus Christi between now and Easter.

March 28 -April 01: Confessions before daily Mass, 11:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

April 02: Confessions before Saturday Mass, 3:00-3:45 p.m.

April 04-08: Confessions before daily Mass, 11:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

April 04: Added Confessions, 5:00-8:00 p.m. (Msgr. Schumacher, Fr. Aune & Fr. Becker scheduled)

April 09: Confessions before Saturday Mass, 3:00-3:45 p.m.

April 11: NO Confessions 11:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. (Due to the Diocesan Chrism Mass)

April 11: Added Confessions, 5:00-8:00 p.m. (Msgr. Schumacher, Fr. Aune & Fr. Becker scheduled)

April 12: Added Confessions, 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. (Msgr. Schumacher & Fr. Aune scheduled)

April 13: Added Confessions, 11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. (Msgr. Schumacher & Fr. Aune scheduled)

Added Confessions, 5:00-8:00 p.m. (Msgr. Schumacher, Fr. Aune & Fr. Becker scheduled)

April 14-16: No Confessions (Holy Triduum)

We offer these times of Confession for all the faithful. I ask that you plan ahead to receive the Sacraments, not only by being aware of the schedule, but also mindful of your time in the Confessional, as lines can become long. Prepare for Confession by doing an examination of conscience before you come to the Church, so you know what you need to say in the Confessional. We do have materials and aids available, if you don't have the Act of Contrition memorized or need tips on how to go to Confession. If it has been a while since you have received the Sacrament and you don't know what to do, just tell the priest and he'll help you through it. The confessional should never be a scary place. It is the place where we receive God's forgiveness. In last weekend's bulletin, there was an insert that listed all the added times of Confessions in the Bismarck area. There are also flyers at the entrances this weekend.

~Blessings on your Lenten Journey! Msgr. Patrick A. Schumacher, S.T.L.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT; SECOND SCRUTINY OF THE ELECT

An investment worth making

It's not uncommon to identify individuals, or groups of people, as unworthy of our time and attention. Sometimes these folks just plain bore us to tears. But more often, we view them as freeloaders, untrustworthy, or even bad to the bone. Jesus was criticized for dining with the wrong people: prostitutes (immoral), tax collectors (unpatriotic), and sinners (generally unsavory types). Jesus tells a story of a feast thrown for a "worthless" son to explain why he himself chooses to "waste" time on the undeserving. The lost need finding, and the dead need life restored. "Hospitality opens the gates of paradise," wrote Orthodox Elder Amphilochius of Patmos. Set another place at your table.

TODAY'S READINGS: Year C: Joshua 5:9a, 10-12; 2 Corinthians 5:17-21; Luke 15:1-3, 11-32 (33). "Your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found."

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Tiny miracles

"Do you believe in miracles?" was a famous statement made by a sportscaster who was announcing an Olympic hockey game between the United States and Soviet teams in 1980—the underdog Americans won. Catholics believe in miracles, of course—but there has to be something more than mere unlikeliness to qualify. The church defines miracles as a "sign or wonder such as a healing, or control of nature, which can only be attributed to divine power." While we might not understand how or why miracles happen—or don't, even when we desperately ask—we can be assured that the God of the universe is constantly involved in our little lives out of boundless love. What's a greater miracle than that?

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 65:17-21; John 4:43-54 (244). "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will not believe."

LENTEN WEEKDAY

A day for the Knights

The Knights of Columbus organization for Catholic men turns 140 years old today. The organization originally got its U.S. start as a mutual aid society for poor immigrant families, particularly those that lost their main source of income whenever fathers died on the job. To this day, "whether at home or abroad, charity is our Order's first principle and the basis for all we do as brother Knights," says Supreme Knight Carl Anderson. The Knights run the National Shrine of Saint John Paul II in Washington, D.C. Visit the shrine virtually, via its 38-minute "A Gift of Love" Virtual Exhibit Tour.

TODAY'S READINGS: Ezekiel 47:1-9, 12; John 5:1-16 (245). "Jesus said to him, 'Rise, take up your mat, and walk.'"

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Let it be a hopeful Lent

Our faith is one of hope. Often we concentrate on the sacrifices and commitments we make during Lent: abstaining from certain treats, attending daily Mass, giving alms generously. But we do this in the hope that Easter will come and Jesus will rise from the dead. Reflect on the spirit of hope that is at the root of your Lenten observance. Here are some words of inspiration from Pope Francis: "No matter where God has planted you, hope. Always hope. Believe in the existence of the most noble and beautiful truths and trust that God, through the Holy Spirit, is ushering everything toward the good, toward Christ's embrace."

TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 49:8-15; John 5:17-30 (246). "The hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and will come out, those who have done good deeds to the resurrection of life."

Thursday, Mar 31, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY

Rigor has a reason

We are now four weeks into Lent, at which point, disciplines of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving might not deliver much pious glow. The church developed the tradition of 40 days of Lent based on the 40 days Jesus was tempted in the desert prior to his public ministry. A six-week season of prayer, penance, and almsgiving is meant to instill in us awareness, humility, and love, but most of all, the realization of our utter dependence on God. As Saint Teresa of Ávila says, "Whoever has God lacks nothing. God alone suffices." Take a few moments to reflect on the ways God has sustained you.

TODAY'S READINGS: Exodus 32:7-14; John 5:31-47 (247). "How can you believe, when you accept praise from one another and do not seek the praise that comes from the only God?"

Friday, Apr 01, 2022

LENTEN WEEKDAY; DAY OF ABSTINENCE

Make the uncommon choice for the common good

The "common good" is central to being Catholic. Defined at Vatican II, the common good is the "sum of those conditions of social life which allow social groups and their individual members relatively thorough and ready access to their own fulfillment" (Gaudium et Spes 26). It requires appreciation for the relational nature of human beings and an absolute respect for the dignity of all persons, including but never limited to our own self. It also means ruffling a feather or two as we stare rampant individualism in the face. The common good is always evolving, but our motivation in its pursuit never changes: love of neighbor as ourselves. Where will such love take you next?

TODAY'S READINGS: Wisdom 2:1a, 12-22; John 7:1-2, 10, 25-30 (248). "Let us beset the just one, because he is obnoxious to us; he sets himself against our doings, Reproaches us for transgressions of the law."

MEMORIAL OF FRANCIS OF PAOLA

Small wonder

Francis of Paola lived in a cave but he could see well beyond his confines. His vision for a community of "Minim" ("the least") inspired countless followers to join him in a life of service to the poor and forgotten. Talk about countercultural living! Such radical service requires a whole different set of priorities. For Francis it was a desire for holiness achieved through humility. Each of us can take some steps to "minimize" the excesses we might indulge in and join Francis in serving others in some small way. It's the least we can do!

TODAY'S READINGS: Jeremiah 11:18-20; John 7:40-53 (249). "Never before has anyone spoken like this man."

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I want to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for your generous contributions to our 33rd Annual African Mission Appeal which was held in our parishes on March 5th and 6th.

Your kind gift helped make this year's appeal a tremendous success. Because of your remarkable generosity, we will be able to continue our expanded programs and services that are making an incredible impact on the lives of the Aids orphans we are assisting.

The money collected for the African Mission Appeal supports our missionary activity in Kisii, Kenya, East Africa. You can be very proud of all the missionary work that we are able to accomplish because of your generosity. On behalf of our poor brothers and sisters and all the orphaned children you will be helping this year, I offer my heartfelt thank you.

I hope you get a chance to read about the exciting ministry that Fr. David Morman and Wes and Kathy Pepple are accomplishing because of your support in the Dakota Catholic Action newspaper. The exciting articles describe the wonderful work and ministry made possible by your contributions. More information can also be found on our diocesan website and the African Mission Facebook page.

Once again, I thank each and every one of you who supported our African Mission Appeal. You are faithful and generous stewards.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
