All are welcome!

Would you like to be a registered member of our parish? You may scan this QR code with your phone and fill out the registration form from your phone. Or go to www.corpuschristibismarck.com and under "About" and Click on "Join our Parish".

Marriage Moments: What can a tree teach you about marriage? "It shall put forth branches and bear fruit." (Ezekiel 17:23) Some trees grow naturally. Some need pruning to become their best selves. Can you spend some time together today enjoying and learning from a tree?

Parenting Pointers: When your child has a problem and wants your help or input, and you are caught off guard, try saying "Tell me more about that" or "What do you think you should do?" Responses like this can buy you time and clarify the situation. (Susan Vogt at www.susanvogt.net)

Choir Rehearsal

will resume in September.
Have a great summer!!

We welcome new members.
Contact Sebastian at 701-945-9806.

Stewardship Thoughts: The Scriptures today remind us that "we, many though we are, are one body for we all partake of the one loaf." How are you using your gifts of time and talent to build up the body of Christ?

Vocation Views: Those who feed on the Bread of Life shall live forever. How is your spirit nourished by the body and blood of Christ? Eucharist is at the heart of our Christian faith. Come to the table! (John 6:51-58)

The Pro-Cathedral of St. Mary in Bismarck has an opening for a part-time Custodian and Maintenance position. This individual will oversee and conduct the cleaning and maintenance needs on the parish campus and ensure parishioners and visitors have a safe, attractive, comfortable, and clean place in which to pray, worship, and visit. In assisting with the overall day-to-day operations of the parish, the responsibilities will include weekly cleaning of parish facility floor coverings, sanitizing parish facilities, regulate and monitor heat, ventilation, and air conditioning systems, make minor building repairs, and perform basic repairs in plumbing, electrical, carpentry, and general mechanical areas. The individual will also assist in coordinating set-up for special events and activities, and perform other duties as assigned. Qualifications include a minimum of one year custodial or related experience and knowledge in basic techniques of HVAC system operations, maintenance, building repairs, and carpentry. To apply, go to www.stmarysbismarck.org/job-openings. For more information, please contact Olivia Richter at olivia@stmarysbismarck.org or 701-712-2927

STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Looking ahead to 2024 & beyond:

Corpus Christi is in need of an additional volunteer to assist with Sacristy Linen Care. This individual is responsible for the care (washing & ironing) of the Sacristy linens once a week for the month of February. The linens can be taken home. Please help us prepare for next year by filling this spot in the yearly rotation.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK:

This weekend is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, also known as Corpus Christi Sunday and our parish feast day. As we kick off the "parish year/phase" of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) 3-year Eucharistic Revival, we thought a Eucharistic procession would be a great way to start. While Corpus Christi has traditionally (pre-COVID) done a procession inside the church at the end of Mass, this will be the first time we are processing outside. I hope you noticed the beautiful Eucharistic procession canopy we debuted this year. And, a word of gratitude to the staff, clergy, and Knights of Columbus for their assistance with the procession. Why do we do a Eucharistic procession? A Eucharistic procession is a public witness of the veneration of the most Holy Eucharist. As Catholics, we believe that the consecrated host is the real and substantial presence of Jesus Christ. The Eucharist is not a sign of Jesus - it IS Jesus. In the most recent edition of the Dakota Catholic Action, Bishop Kagan said, "The Church teaches us with absolute certainty that the Most Holy Eucharist is the source and summit of our lives. Clearly, if we do not believe that the Most Holy Eucharist is the Body, Soul and Divinity of Jesus under the appearance of bread and wine, we are not Catholic." Eucharistic processions became a common practice after the institution of the Solemnity of Corpus Christi into the liturgical calendar in the 13th century. Juliana of Liege, a medieval Norbertine canoness regular and mystic in Belgium has long been recognized as the promoter of our feast day, first celebrated in Liege in 1246. Regarding the feast, +Pope Benedict XVI said in 2007: "It was born for the very precise purpose of openly reaffirming the faith of the people of God in Jesus Christ, alive and truly present in the most holy sacrament of the Eucharist. It is a feast that was established in order to publicly adore, praise and thank the Lord, who continues to 'love us to the end,' even offering us his body and blood." I thank you for your participation in our Eucharistic processions and I pray that the upcoming year will be one of deeper learning and faith - for each one of us!

In miscellaneous news: • Numerous "loose ends" were tied-up at the rectory this week. You may have seen the various contractors on site. We are grateful for their dedication to our project. • This Monday, three men will be ordained priests for the Diocese of Bismarck. Join me in praying for Josh Hill, Dustin Johns and Steven Vetter. Praise be to our Lord Jesus Christ for the gift of their vocations! Many priests celebrate their ordination anniversaries this time of year. Fr. Dosch was ordained May 31, 2017; as you know, Fr. Becker was ordained 50 years ago on June 01, 1973; Fr. Obrigewitch celebrates his 1st Anniversary on June 17; and, as I have mentioned previously, I will celebrate my 30th anniversary on June 29. Your support and prayers are a great blessing to us. Know of our prayers for you and all those whom you love. ~Have a Great Week! Monsignor Patrick A. Schumacher, S.T.L.

We are one

Unity is what our sacrament of Communion is about: oneness with God and each other. Yet, because we're human, that communion is necessarily paired up with another sacrament that does the work of reconciling. When unity gets torn, reconciliation repairs the damage. Lately, toxic polarization has been shredding our national unity, creating an illusion of insurmountable division. Media sources sharpen the knives of contrasting worldviews, leading to anxiety and depression, fear and violence. Trust in unity. Resist being recruited in the polarization game.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a; 1 Corinthians 10:16-17; Lauda Sion; John 6:51-58 (167). "We, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf."

Monday, Jun 12, 2023

Unexpected blessings

In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus offers the Beatitudes, a list of those who are blessed—some of whom are not who listeners would expect to hear are blessed: the poor in spirit, the mournful, the meek, and the persecuted. In some Bible versions, "blessed" is translated as "happy," which makes it even harder to believe that those named could possibly be that! Jesus was always turning conventional wisdom inside out and upside down—enlightening and enraging people alike. Two thousand years later, we're still trying to figure out how to be happy. If pursuing what the world says "should" make you happy doesn't, take a cue from Jesus and try flipping that faulty logic on its head!

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 1:1-7; Matthew 5:1-12 (359).

"Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

Tuesday, Jun 13, 2023

Go for the grandeur

Church historian Sophronius Clasen liked to say Saint Anthony preached the "grandeur of Christianity," using allegory and symbolic explanations to convey biblical wisdom. Anyone can spot such examples in the Sermons of Saint Anthony, including: "Genesis says: The spirit of God moved over the waters .... Just as the mind of a craftsman broods over the work he is going to do, and as the bird broods over the egg from which her young will be hatched, so the Spirit of God brooded over the waters, from which were to be made all things." Let Anthony's words stir your heart today.

MEMORIAL OF ANTHONY OF PADUA, PRIEST, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 1:18-22; Matthew 5:13-16 (360).

"Just so, your light must shine before others."

Wednesday, Jun 14, 2023

A salute to justice

On this day each year, the United States commemorates the adoption of the national flag, our venerable Stars and Stripes. "A new constellation," it was said to represent, in the vast array of the world powers. But as we, in Christian charity, work for a better world as good and faithful Americans, we must be careful to live as citizens of heaven first and foremost, workers of light rather than earthly empire, children of God and not of worldly dominion. May our Flag Day commemorations also remember those who have been forgotten in the American project and whose cries for justice may still be unanswered. May our waving of "Old Glory" be for the glory of the God above all.

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 3:4-11; Matthew 5:17-19 (361).

"For if what was going to fade was glorious, how much more will what endures be glorious."

Thursday, Jun 15, 2023

The law as Jesus taught it

Matthew uses the word "righteousness" seven times in his gospel. What is he getting at? The U.S. bishops boil it down to this: "While righteousness in the new age will continue to mean conduct that is in accordance with the law, it will be conduct in accordance with the law as expounded and interpreted by Jesus." In other words, we need to absorb the full example and teachings of Jesus to live a righteous life. That's a tall order, which is precisely why we need each other for support and guidance. How can you support a fellow disciple today?

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 3:15—4:1, 3-6; Matthew 5:20-26

(362). "I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter into the Kingdom of heaven."

Friday, Jun 16, 2023

Put your heart into it

On May 25, 1899, Pope Leo XIII promulgated the encyclical Annum sacrum, which consecrated the entire world to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Leo called this the "great act" of his papacy. In an interview with Catholic News Service, Father Ambrose Dobrozsi of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati says that this solemnity, "shows that humanity still needs and longs for a compassionate and all-powerful God. ... In a society where some live in decadence and prideful luxury while others are destitute, the burning love of Christ's Sacred Heart reminds us that the fires of his mercy are also fires of justice." Consecrate your own heart to the effort to create a more compassionate and just world.

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

TODAY'S READINGS: Deuteronomy 7:6-11; 1 John 4:7-16; Matthew 11:25-30 (170). "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves."

Saturday, Jun 17, 2023

A heartfelt conversion is possible

Most of us would rather not reveal our inner lives since we often harbor some measure of anger, judgment, prejudice, hatred, lust, envy, jealousy, bitterness, resentment, and fear. Jesus said that all evil in the world springs forth from the human heart. But the Immaculate Heart of Mary is a celebration of a different kind of inner life, with virtues beyond measure and beyond our imagination. Mary, the ultimate intercessor, will help us convert the vices of the heart into virtues.

MEMORIAL OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 5:14-21; Luke 2:41-51 (364; 573).

"His mother kept all these things in her heart."
