Save us,
O Lord our God!

PASTOR'S COMMENTS
Borrowed from Paul Turner

God's Interpreter

God speaks to us in different ways because we do not always listen the same. We experience God in our communion at church, in the simplicity of nature, in the sacred scriptures, and in the counsel of the wise. But God often uses another person to bring a message to us, because we cannot hear it on our own.

During their exodus from Egypt, the chosen people heard the words of God through Moses. They liked it that way. They thought if they heard God's word directly they would die. They needed an intermediary to shield them from the awesome power of God's presence.

God loved them and wanted them to hear the sacred words of the covenant. So God used Moses, and they listened to him.

God did even more for these people. God promised to give them another prophet from among their kin. God knew that in later generations, we would have the same problem. We do not always listen to God the same. We need someone to help us interpret.

In the fullness of time, God raised up a prophet like Moses. Jesus sits at God's right hand and intercedes for us. Human and divine, Jesus helps us hear God's word.

Fr. John

Saint John of the Cross wrote that "In the evening of life we will be judged on love alone." How will I face that judgement when my day comes?

Religious Education Classes

Day	Date	Grade	Time
Sun	Jan 28	7 thru 10	6:30-7:45
Tue	Jan 30	1 thru 3	4:15-5:30
Wed	Jan 31	4 thru 6	4:15-5:30

Jesus is always knocking at the door of our Hearts. It up to us to let Him in.

HEAR HIS VOICE

Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me; and I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish, and no one shall snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. I and the Father are one" (John 10:27-30). These four verses contain the whole of Jesus's message; it is the nucleus of his Gospel: he calls us to share in his relationship with the Father, and this is eternal life.

THE SIGN OF PEACE

During this season of Colds and Flu we should be mindful of each other's well-being and during the Sign of Peace at Mass nod or smile at our neighbor rather than shaking hands.

This weekend is the Collection for the Church in Latin America! Many people in Latin America and Caribbean do not have access to church programs and ministries because of rural terrain and a lack of ministers. Your generosity makes it possible for them to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ. Please be generous to this collection! To learn more about the collection, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.

A PRAYER FOR TRUST

O Lord, You alone know what is best for me. Let this or that be done, as You please. Give what You will, how much You will, and when You will.
Amen
