Did You Know?

Talking With Your Children

It is good practice for parents to have ongoing conversations with their children about family values, safety, and "what if" scenarios. Talking with your children before something happens gives them the tools and confidence to make safe, good decisions, and to react appropriately in a variety of situations. Even if these conversations feel huge or overwhelming, they are critical to have. Start small—perhaps in the car on the way to school or a game—and build on previous conversations to give your child a full picture of what to do and how to handle tricky situations. For more information, read the VIRTUS article "Talking With Your Kids" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

You would also need to attend several group rehearsals for each of these liturgies. To sign up by Oct. 8th, or to learn additional information, please contact Joella Merten at (626) 821-0264, or any of our music directors, whose names and contact information are on the back of our weekly parish bulletin or our website at www.annunciationchurch.net.
