From the Pastor

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

On this glorious Easter Sunday, let us rejoice in the victory of our Lord Jesus Christ over sin and death. May His light guide you, His love surround you, and His grace be with you always. Alleluia! Happy Easter!

With all the reasons to rejoice in this season, I would like to add more by announcing that Annunciation Catholic Church is gearing up to celebrate a significant milestone - its 75th Anniversary! (1949 - 2024). This Jubilee year will kick off on April 8, 2024, with a special 7:30 p.m. Mass on the Solemnity of Annunciation. This day marks the beginning of a year-long observance filled with festivities and reflection on the church's rich history and community impact.

One of the notable events during this jubilee year is the Mass scheduled for May 19, 2024, at 11:00 am on Pentecost Sunday. Archbishop Jose Gomez will preside over this special service, adding to the significance of the occasion and underscoring the church's close ties to the broader Catholic community.

As the jubilee year progresses, there will be a range of celebrations and events planned to engage members and honor the legacy of Annunciation Catholic Church. The culmination of this memorable year will be marked by a closing Mass with Bishop Brian Nunes in March 2025, bringing together all the faithful in a final moment of prayer and thanksgiving for the church's 75 years of service and devotion.

With these meaningful events and festivities planned throughout the year, the Annunciation Catholic Church community is poised to embark on a joyous and spiritually uplifting journey as they honor their past, celebrate their present, and look forward to a future filled with faith and community.

I pray that the joy of the resurrection fill your heart with hope and happiness this Easter season. Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed and joyous Easter!

In Christ,

Fr. Freddie

Divine Mercy Sunday:

The Sunday immediately following Easter is designated as Divine Mercy Sunday. All Masses today celebrate the Divine Mercy that has saved us through the Death and Resurrection of Jesus. In special observance of this day, we will gather in church at 4:45 p.m. There, we will pray the Divine Mercy Bi-lingual Chaplet and honor the Divine Mercy image. The spiritual blessing for those who observe the Feast of the Divine Mercy is promised to those who go to confession and receive Communion on that day. Confession that was celebrated at any time during Lent in preparation for Easter suffices. The Divine Mercy Novena begins when you pray privately on Good Friday and continues for nine days until the Feast Day itself, today. Following the service in the church, there will be a reception in the Rectory Patio. All are invited to attend.

Saint of the Week:
St. John Baptist de La Salle

St. John Baptist de La Salle was born in 1651, in Reims, France. He was the eldest son of wealthy parents. At the age of eleven, La Salle was committed to becoming a priest. At the age of sixteen, he was named Canon of Reims Cathedral. At the age of eighteen, he received a master's degree in classical literature and arts, as well as philosophy.

La Salle's parents died in 1671 and 1672.

La Salle had to manage his parent's estate which included educating his four brothers and two sisters. Once this was done, he was ordained to the priesthood on April 9, 1678. He was 26 years old. He continued his studies until he received his doctorate in theology.

La Salle also worked with the Sisters of the Child Jesus to educate girls, serving as chaplain and confessor for their school. While performing this work, he met Adrian Nyel, who was himself a supervisor of teachers at a boys school in Reims. Through Nyel, a wealthy woman asked La Salle to be involved with the endowment of a new school for poor children. She provided the money, as long as La Salle agreed to help run the school. La Salle worked with the teachers to educate them and teach them manners. In 1685, La Salle established the first school for the training of educators in Reims. La Salle worked as an educator all his life. He lived until 1719, when he died on April 7, which happened to be Good Friday, was beatified by Pope Leo XIII on February 19, 1888 and canonized by him on May 24, 1900. His feast day is April 7. He is the patron saint of all educators.
