Annunciation Youth Music Ministry:

Our Annunciation Youth Choir is inviting other young people (3rd grade & up) to participate in Music Ministry! We sing the 2nd Sunday of each month at the 10am mass. Our rehearsals are every Wednesday from 6-7pm. Come and make new friends while learning music! Please contact Francine Moore at (626) 930-0448 to get started. Instrumentalists are welcome!!

Registration for Religious Education Scheduled To Begin:

Religious Education

Registration for the 2024-2025 year will begin on Sunday, July 28th. Our Religious Education Office will be open that day from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 Noon and for subsequent Sundays. First-year elementary students need to bring a Baptismal Certificate. If you are registering for Confirmation, please bring both a Baptismal and a First Communion Certificate. Families with children six years and older, who are not baptized, need to provide a copy of a birth certificate. Families returning for the second year of sacramental preparation must have all previous fees paid and copies of certificates must be in the R.E. Office. Confirmation classes begin on Sunday, Oct.6th; elementary school classes begin on Thursday, Oct. 3rd. For more information, please contact the Religious Education Office at (626) 446-1625

Missionary Work of the Church:

We have an opportunity to share in the missionary work of the Church through the visit of Sister Anne Lansana, a member of the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Cluny. She will be with us this weekend to speak about the Cluny Sisters' work in Ghana, Gambia and Sierra Leone. Sister Anne is currently ministering through education in West Africa.

You can help save a life in your community. Life Choice Pregnancy Center is offering a sidewalk advocacy training on August 10th. Make sure to RSVP ahead of time! Spots are limited. Contact: sidewalkadvocates.org (573) 690-5086

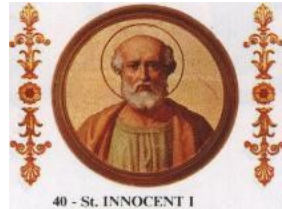

City of Hope Blood Drive:

Annunciation Catholic Church is pleased to announce the City of Hope Blood Drive, here in the Parish Hall on August 4th. Did you know the City of Hope patients — most of whom are fighting cancer — rely on more than 37,000 units of blood and platelets each year for their survival! The blood drive will take place from 8:00 am to 2:00 pm. To sign up, please go to the link on the website. Every donor who signs up for an appointment and donates blood will receive a City of Hope gift for their donation. If you have any questions please contact Jessica Luna at (626) 253-4167.

Saint of the Week: Saint Innocent 1

Innocent the I was the 40th Pope and reigned from 401 A.D. until March 12, 417 A.D. The exact date of his birth is unknown, but most scholars believe he was around age 41 at the time he took office. He rose to the papacy after being a deacon in Rome and raised among the Roman clergy. He is remembered as a strong defender of orthodoxy and insisted on the primacy of the bishop of Rome as the administrative leader of the Catholic Church. He is most remembered for defending St. John Chrysostom after he was deposed as patriarch of Constantinople, and for participating in the failed attempt to negotiate a peaceful settlement with Visigoth King Alaric and his letters to St. Jerome. Through the generosity of Roman matron Vestius, Innocent I was able to build and decorate a church dedicated to St. Gervasius and St. Prothasius. This church still stands in Rome today, though a more famous church by the same name stands in Ravenna, Italy. Innocent I strongly believed that as Bishop of Rome, he was the head of the entire Catholic Church in both the East and West. Specifically, Innocent I asserted that Pope Damasus I had granted the archbishop of Thessalonica the authority to consecrate bishops in Eastern Illyria. Innocent I reaffirmed these powers of the archbishop of Thessalonica and placed the administration of all dioceses of Eastern Illyria under him as the representative of the Holy See (Rome). Innocent I also asserted administrative control in Spain and France. On February 15, 404 A.D., Innocent insisted that local episcopal tribunals forward important matters to the Holy See, including ordinations of the clergy, accepting converted Donatists and Novatianists into the church and questions involving celibacy.

Pope Benedict XVI's Prayer for Grandparents

Lord Jesus, You were born of the Virgin Mary, the daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne. Look with love on grandparents the world over. Protect them! They are a source of enrichment for families, for the Church and for all of society. Support them! As they grow older, may they continue to be for their families strong pillars of Gospel Faith, guardians of noble domestic ideals, living treasuries of sound religious traditions. Make them teachers of wisdom and courage, that they may pass on to future generations the fruits of their mature human and spiritual experience. Lord Jesus, Help families and society to value the presence and role of grandparents. May they never be ignored or excluded, but always encounter respect and love. Help them to live serenely and to feel welcomed in all the years of life which you give them. Mary, Mother of all the living, keep grandparents constantly in your care, accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage, and by your prayers, grant that all families may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland, where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end. Amen!

Sabia Que? Voluntarios de canamentos de Verano

Si su hijo participa en un campamento de Verano a través de su escuela o iglesia diocesana, es probable que parte (o todo) del personal sean voluntarios o jóvenes. En la Arquidiócesis de Los Angeles, todos los voluntarios que tienen contacto con niños deben recibir capacitación VIRTUS para garantizar que conozcan las normas de seguridad infantil y los procedimientos de protección contra el abuso. Los programas de capacitación para la prevención del abuso infantil son fundamentales para garantizar la seguridad de nuestros niños, y la capacitación de voluntarios es una parte de esta misión. Para obtener más información, visite lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

Retiro de Adolescentes:

Ministro de Intercesión por nuestras necesidades y las del mundo entero, envía a adolescents de 12 a 17 años a su retiro "Tu eres mi hijo, y yo soy tu Padre".
