

THE CATHOLIC COMMUNITY OF Ascension & St. Augustine

Making Quality Commitments

Nothing shapes your life more than the commitments you choose to make. Your commitments can develop you or they can destroy you, but either way, they will define you. What you commit to today will shape who you will be in 5, 10, or 15 years from now.

Some people make half-hearted commitments to the Lord. Others do not make any commitment at all because they are afraid too. Others make a full commitment to worldly goals, such as becoming wealthy or famous, and end up disappointed and bitter. Every choice has eternal consequences. So, it is expedient that we choose wisely.

“Since everything around us is going to melt away, what holy, godly lives you should be living!” (2 Peter 3:11). Becoming like Jesus comes from making Christlike commitments. Deciding to live like Christ brings about acting in new ways. You’ll need to let go of some old routines, develop some new habits, and intentionally change the way you think.

“Continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you to will and to act in order to fulfill his good purpose” (Philippians 2:12).

One such commitment is to pray each day. This means setting aside quality time to be with the Lord and have a conversation with Him. It is not cont'd

how long you do this but the consistency of doing this. Establishing a quiet time with the Lord opens the windows of your soul for Him to have access to your heart and mind. In this way he begins to accomplish his purposes in your life.

-Fr. Dale

St. Thérèse’s Trick for Distraction in Prayer

By Philip Koslosky, Aletheia Magazine, May 8, 2023

It can be difficult to focus our attention on God and remain in a conversation with him. However, sometimes these distractions aren’t “distractions” at all, they are thoughts introduced by God that are aimed at our spiritual benefit.

For example, here is what St. Thérèse of Lisieux wrote about being distracted during prayer — I also have many [distractions] but as soon as I am aware of them, I pray for those people the thought of whom is diverting my attention, and in this way they reap benefit from my distractions.

Our Prayer Intention for May:

That the love of the Sacred Heart touch and move the hearts of those who are alienated or separated from God and the Church.

Your prayers are crucial to becoming a mission-driven active community!

Sometimes God wants to divert our attention and shed light on a struggling friend or family member. They may need our prayers or our charity. This way the distraction is turned in the right way and instead of taking us away from God, it brings us closer to him and his divine plan.

The key is to be attentive when that happens and notice when you have been thinking about someone in your life, or even something you saw on Facebook. In some instances God may want you to be praying for that individual or extending a helpful hand to them.

St. Josemaria Escriva instructs us that, “The closer an apostle is to God, the more universal his desires. His heart expands and takes in everybody and everything in its longing to lay the universe at the feet of Jesus.”

So the next time you feel distracted during prayer, offer it to God and open your heart to whatever God wants to communicate to you in that moment.

Happy Mother's Day!
