Dear Parish Family,

This Weekend, the Church around the world honors the Blessed Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The Trinity is the most foundational belief of our Christian Faith.

HONORING FATHERS THIS WEEKEND

How appropriate, on this weekend honoring God the Father, that we honor all fathers. I'm grateful to Angie Sampey for preparing delicious cookies for fathers in the parish.

CELEBRATING MY SIXTH ORDINATION
ANNIVERSARY THIS WEEKEND

This Sunday, on Father's Day, I will celebrate six years of ordination to the priesthood. Over the past two weeks, I have spent time in prayer recalling the promises I made at my ordination on June 15, 2019. In six short years, God has blessed me with three fulfilling assignments and brought many wonderful people into my life.

As a young priest in my first pastorate, I am deeply grateful for your prayers and support over the past three years. Thank you for supporting me in my priestly vocation!

KEEPING YOU INFORMED:

THE RECTORY PROJECT (2ND NOTICE)

I recently met with our architect, Josh Hoffpauir, and reviewed his team's preliminary drawings of the new priest's residence and church office. Last week, a formal property survey was completed. In the next month, Josh Hoffpauir and I will go before the Diocesan Building Review Board. This is an additional step required for all new constructions in the diocese. Once we receive their approval, our architect will be able to begin planning work with a contractor. This phase of the construction-planning process is always slow-going. But know that progress is being made each week. I will continue to keep you updated, and let you know when we have a timeline for work.
