Given all current public health and safety reports, I am extending the dispensation from Sunday obligation to attend Mass beyond the aforementioned September 7 date listed in our Diocesan Directives "until further notice."

The faithful are certainly encouraged, but not required, to attend Sunday Mass in their parishes whenever possible or to participate in outdoor or live-streamed parish Masses offered online until the dispensation ceases "to keep holy, the Lord's Day."

Please continue to remember one another in prayer, especially the sick, the departed and all those providing care for them at this time.

VOCATION PRAYER

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Dear Heavenly Father, I believe that you are the Way, the Truth and the Life. You alone love me for who I truly am and for what I am able to become. Though I make repeated mistakes, you continually offer me new opportunities to grow every moment of the day.

Your Son lived the Way that I must choose if I'm to be transformed and to fully develop my potential. His Way is the only path that leads to true personhood.

Attuned to your Truth, Father, I am capable of leading a wholesome and worthwhile life. The depth of my service to others is dependent on my grasp of your Truth.

May your Spirit overflow into my life that I may have your Life to the full. Give me the strength and the courage to be all that I can be and not to settle for less.

Realizing that my life is a precious gift from you, may I integrate Your Way, Your Truth and Your Life, and make it my own. Amen.

Thank you for praying for vocations.

THE FEAST OF THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

The Columbiettes Honor Jessica Donohue for her dedication in helping our Parish through the pandemic.

On May 9th, 2021, the Columbiettes Santa Maria 1179 was proud to honor someone who has proven to be a very special person to our parish time and time again. This past year has been challenging for us all. We found ourselves quarantined, in our homes, sometimes cut off from the outside world. It quickly became a time that could truly be defined as traumatic, stressful and uncertain. As every part of our lives were tested, our church was not immune to the impact of Covid-19. The doors were closed and we all found ourselves with no access to the very home we come to in order to be with the Lord.

Mister Rogers was once quoted as saying “look for the helpers. You will always find people who are helping”. It was something his mother would say to him as a child when something was scary. This year we needed “helpers” more than ever before. We knew all the frontline workers and essential workers were doing what they could to keep our country running. But during it all, we had a “helper” of our own. Mrs. Jessica Donohue emerged as our helper. She knew we as a parish, needed to know our home of worship would be ok and that we as a parish would be ok. So she stepped up in a way that could only be described as inspiring.

Once the doors to Sacred Heart shut, she went into action. As the Director of the Religious Education Program, she began revamping the program so that our children were not without the support of the Catechists. Google Classroom became her best friend. She considered the needs of the students and made sure each individual family had the support they needed and ensure the children in the program continued on schedule. As learning and retreats went to an online platform and sacraments were postponed, she remained in constant communication with all the catechists and families.

Jessica did not stop there though. She began sending Parish Updates which included information beyond the Religious Education program. Jessica kept us connected and updated on information from the parish as well as the Diocese through email and Facebook.

After what seemed like an eternity, our doors opened again and we were welcomed to gather. During Advent, Jessica knew that many parishioners were still not coming to mass and did not feel safe to do so. So tapping into her technical skills, she took Sacred Heart to YouTube and brought mass to those at home via live stream.

Despite how we had adapted to everything going on, Jessica knew we still needed to feel connected. So, again being called to action, Jessica began a Wednesday night meeting which allowed all who wanted to attend to gather and pray the rosary.

Jessica we know you do all of this while simultaneously being a wife, a mother, a daughter and a student. We know you are always there when we need you and we are all so proud to call you ours. Lastly, thank you to your family for always sharing you. We see their sacrifice as well and appreciate all you do for us. Thank you for your unwavering dedication to our parish.

Good News Reflection

Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord
May 16, 2021

Pray: Give me courage, Lord, to be daring and determined in the spreading of the Gospel. May your signs and wonders accompany my testimony of your love for people, as in the first Pentecost. Amen.

Acts 1:1-11

Ps 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9

Ephesians 1:17-23 or Ephesians 4:1-13

Mark 16:15-20

Moving forward with the Holy Spirit

Sometimes we find ourselves in the same posture as the disciples in today's first reading, looking up at the sky where we last saw Jesus, not moving, just staring at nothing, waiting for him to come back and do something to rescue this world from its evil.

It seems like he's not finished. There's more he should be doing. Our world needs the Second Coming of Christ -- and now! What's the delay?

Ahhh, but he's told us not to stand about gawking and waiting but to go forth and spread the Good News. He told us to take what he's given us and use it to serve others, to make a difference somewhere, somehow, to someone.

Why do we stare at the empty sky? Because we feel inadequate.

Parents know this feeling. After giving birth or adopting a child in an amazing partnership with God the Giver of Life, we have the awesome task of raising this tiny human into a faith-filled, emotionally healthy adult. Wow. More than a few miracles will be needed.

Graduates know this feeling. After completing college or a Lay Ministry training program or ordination or final vows, we stand on the threshold of working for the Lord and wonder: Will I be effective and successful? Will I like it? Or will I be sent where I'd rather not go?

Those who are grieving know this feeling. After a loved one is taken home to the Lord or a friend is lost in a failed relationship, our lives change drastically. It feels like it shouldn't have. How can we recover from the emptiness, which by its very nature forces our attention onto ourselves and our unmet needs, so that we become full of service to others?

Every change in our lives is a commissioning. Every loss is the beginning of a new calling. Every experience is training for a work of God's kingdom that the Lord wants to accomplish through us.

Why are you standing there looking at the sky? Jesus has been your teacher and your guide: Although you cannot see what he's doing now, he has not abandoned you. He is fulfilling his promise: "You will receive power from the Holy Spirit, and you will be my witness throughout the earth." Indeed, you were given that Holy Spirit in baptism, and it is this Spirit of God that empowers you to continue the ministry of Jesus using your particular gifts and talents and experiences.

We must confidently raise our foot to step forward and, while it's still in mid-air, ask: "Okay God, where do You want me to place this foot down next?" If we remain centered on the Lord, we will not lose our balance. The Holy Spirit will do the work of Christ on Earth through us.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What thresholds or new beginnings are you facing? How are these opportunities for the continuation of the ministry of Jesus?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

In what ways are you doing the works of Jesus? Which parish ministries could use your gifts and talents? How do you rely on the Holy Spirit to get it done?

our parish and our local economy!

Weekly Bulletin Sponsors:
In addition to your weekly bulletin advertisement, you also have FREE access to your very own FindingFABER™ account! The FindingFABER™ app allows you to post realtime promotions/coupons, flash deals, information and listings at any time - 24/7, day or night! As a current sponsor, you should visit www.FindingFABER.com to get started! Your posts are available to the entire community, not only our parishioners! We encourage you to take advantage of this exciting, FREE resource! As with any new app, the more it is used the more exciting it becomes!

*You may be asking yourself,
"who or what is FindingFABER?"*

Parishioners:
If you visit your app store, and download the FindingFABER™ app, you can see and more importantly use, the deals and info posted by our bulletin sponsors!
Just show your phone when you find a sponsor while using the app! The more the app is used, the better it will get!

Wouldn't your business
look GREAT in this spot?!
