WASHINGTON (CNS) — Various Catholic agencies are collecting donations to aid with the humanitarian crisis in Ukraine, as people flee to escape Russian bombing and shelling. Here are some places to donate. This list is not exhaustive.

The international Caritas confederation is collecting funds to help Caritas Ukraine. In the United States, that is through Catholic Relief Services. Internationally, you can donate through Caritas Internationalis.

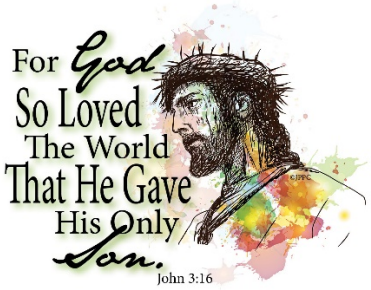
The Ukrainian Catholic Archeparchy of Philadelphia also has a link to donate.

Two pontifical agencies also are taking donations for Ukraine: Catholic Near East Welfare Association and Aid to the Church in Need. Internationally, Aid to the Church can be reached here.

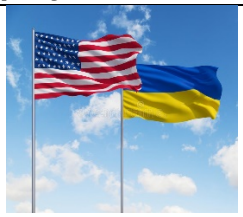
The Knights of Columbus launched the Ukraine Solidarity Fund for humanitarian needs in Ukraine and through refugee sites in Poland.

Donations can also be made to Jesuit Refugee Service to support the agency's work with those forced to flee conflict in Europe.

The Salesians also are accepting donations to help refugees



A prayer for Ukraine



Loving God,
We pray for the people of Ukraine,
for all those suffering or afraid,
that you will be close to them and protect them.

We pray for world leaders,
for compassion, strength and wisdom to guide their choices.

We pray for the world
that in this moment of crisis,
we may reach out in solidarity
to our brothers and sisters in need.

May we walk in your ways
so that peace and justice become a reality for the people of Ukraine and for all the world.

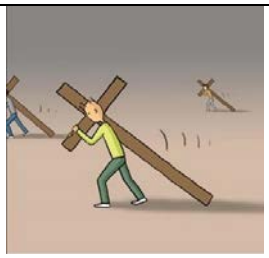
Amen.

Prayer for Vocations



Prayer for Vocations
Offering of the Sick for Vocations

Dear Lord, here is a new day you have given me in which to love you and to help others to love you. Above all things help me to love and accept your holy will. Lord Jesus, I want to bring others also to know you better, to love you more, and for this I know that good and holy priests are necessary; so I will offer my cross, united with yours, for vocations to the holy priesthood. Amen.

Thank you for praying for vocations.

BEARING FRUIT IN LOVE AND FIDELITY

The parable of the fig tree makes a contrast with the burning bush found in the reading from the Book of Exodus. It is reasonable to find a tree in full foliage with its branches laden with ripe fruit. However, the healthy fig tree is as barren as the burning bush is "not consumed." Moses expects to find God in the burning bush, and Christ expects to find fruitfulness in a flourishing tree.

Jesus gave the fig tree yet another year to become productive and bear fruit. He is encouraging those who hear this parable to understand the importance of nurturing their faith lives over time with a view to growth and development throughout a lifetime, not just at isolated moments. There is repentance here, forgiveness and mercy. Jesus extends these to us as we, in turn, must extend our forgiveness and mercy to others.

The SVDP Pantry is in need of the following:

Bottled Juice, Rice Boxed 1-2lb bag, Spaghetti Sauce, Jelly, Canned Peas, Meals in a can

Good News Reflection
Third Sunday of Lent
March 20, 2022

Pray: Thank You, Lord, for calling me every day by name. May Your Holy Spirit produce fruit in me for being Your beloved son. Amen.

Exodus 3:1-8a, 13-15
Ps 103: 1-4, 6-8, 11
1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12
Luke 13:1-9

Mercy: How it helps evil-doers

How do you feel when someone who's been hurtful, cruel, or morally corrupt gets hit with a hardship that makes them suffer? Our natural tendency is to rejoice because justice has finally been meted out.

Jesus addresses this in this Sunday's Gospel reading. He wants us to understand that we cannot truthfully say that someone is a "greater sinner", even if that person is doing more damage than anyone else, is more unChristian than we are, or is blatantly an evil-doer.

Every person has been created in the image of God, even the worst ones. Those who display an opposite image are nonetheless loved by Jesus Christ, who died for them. It's a tragedy that they do not live as the person God created them to be, because this harms others. But it will be an even worse tragedy if no one invites them to turn their lives over to Christ by loving them as he loves them.

No person is an evil person. Evil-doers are children of God living in ignorance of their true identity. They are victims of evil and were seduced by it into believing that it's the best way to live. They don't understand that they can be healed by the Sinless One who conquered evil for their redemption. We should feel sorry for them -- this is the gift of mercy. We should mourn with Jesus for the tragedy that continues within their souls -- this is the most precious gift of mercy.

When we don't care enough to grieve over a person's inner destruction, we are sinning. We are disregarding what Jesus did for them on the cross. We are damaging our own souls.

All those who have sinned against you are like the fig tree in Jesus' parable. If you have access to them, he wants you to till their soil. He wants you to fertilize their souls with love and with the truth of the Gospel as taught by your actions and, when they're ready, by your words. He wants you to give them a gentle but obvious invitation to grow in the right direction.

Notice that Jesus doesn't want us to keep a diseased, disintegrating tree in the garden forever. After (and only after) we have done everything possible, if the evil-doer does not want to change, the best care we can give to the garden is to cut down the tree. This means walking away or calling in the authorities for intervention and letting the sinner reap what he sows. This, too, is very loving. When fertilizer won't produce good fruits, a fallen tree becomes mulch and enriches the ground for a new beginning.

Questions for Personal Reflection:
Who has been so hurtful to you that you wish God would punish them? Can you feel sorry for them? Can you pray for God to do good for them? If not, take this to the Sacrament of Reconciliation and ask for God's help in feeling more concerned about them. In this, you'll find freedom from the anger and pain that has been holding you captive.

Questions for Family & Community Faith Sharing:
What steps can be taken to fertilize the lives of the problematic people of your parish or family or workplace? How do you know when it's time to continue trying and when it's time to quit and chop a tree down?
