We are so grateful for our volunteers, children, and their families, and we wish everyone a Happy Thanksgiving! It is a treat to see all the smiling faces of both children and parents, and we appreciate the catechists and volunteers who share the joy of their faith with them. We feel blessed to be part of this wonderful parish community and hope you had a blessed Thanksgiving!

A special note of thanks to the very generous parishioners who donated Legos so the children of our Religious Education Program can use them as they learn about their faith! Thank you so much!

BLESSING OF EXPECTANT MOTHERS

Advent time is a quiet waiting and prayerful period of expectation before we celebrate the birth of Jesus. At 9:30am Mass on Sunday, December 10th we would like all expectant mothers to be present for a special blessing. Please call Merry Marcellino at the Parish House 609-702-1848 ext. 305 if you would like to take part in this brief ceremony. Friends and relatives of parishioners are welcome. This Mass is also live-streamed.

Solemnity of Christ the King

On this last Sunday of the liturgical year, the Gospel of Matthew is our guiding text and we have a mixture of consoling social justice and chilling final judgment. The Son of Man will place the sheep on His right and the goats on His left. What is the determining factor for this separation? It is highlighted in the ministry to the hungry, thirsty, stranger, the naked, ill and imprisoned.

The King's response to the righteous who questioned when they saw the King in each of these circumstances contains the sum and substance of the Saint Vincent de Paul ministry: "Amen, I say to you whatsoever you did for the least brothers of mine, you did for me."

As we enter this Thanksgiving week, may we pause from our labors and remember in gratitude the Giver of all good gifts. May we never take for granted the gifts of health, family, talent and opportunity, and may we use them for the good of all people.

The St. Vincent de Paul food pantry is Currently in need of the following:

Soup, canned meals, spaghetti sauce and toilet paper.

Thank you for your continued support. If you would like to make a monetary donation, please make checks payable to: Society of St. Vincent de Paul

IN-PERSON ONLY

WE ALL LOVE SCROOGE

Friday, December 1 9:30 AM – 1:00 PM The old familiar Christmas Carol, is ever ancient, ever new! What does the story say to me now? We will view the film, share its message, and enjoy a fabulous lunch. What a great Advent morning as we prepare to be generous givers this season (unlike Scrooge). This will be fun and remarkably impactful for your Advent Season.

Led by Judy Principe. Donation: $25, lunch included.

BE BORN IN ME

MAKE MY HEART YOUR BETHLEHEM

Tuesday, December 5 9:30 AM – 1:00 PM This retreat morning will allow you the time and space to celebrate Christmas spiritually, as most of us do not have that opportunity on the day itself. Spending this time with God makes a huge difference in the final days before Christmas, as you continue your preparation for the feast and will enhance your entire Christmas Season. “I’ll hold you in the beginning, you will hold me in the end. Every moment in the middle, make my heart your Bethlehem. Be Born in Me.” (Battistelli)

Led by S. Marcy. Donation: $25, lunch included. Zoom: $20

WHAT ARE YOU REALLY WAITING FOR?

Tuesday, December 12 9:30 AM – Noon Every year the Season of Advent arrives reminding us that all of life requires a certain kind of waiting. Often, we go through the motions of Advent with our eyes fixed on the calendar date of 12/25 when the waiting ends! This year, let’s try to search our hearts and ask the question, “What am I really waiting for?” Who knows, I might discover I already have all I need.

Good News Reflection

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King
November 26, 2023

Pray: Lord: Give me an alert spirit and a generous heart always ready to serve others. I want to follow You wherever You lead, taking Your love to heal, deliver and comfort my brothers and sisters. Amen.

Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17

Ps 23:1-3, 5-6

1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28

Matthew 25:31-46

What does Jesus do as King?

We don't usually think of shepherds as kings, but the scriptures this Sunday describe the kingly powers of Jesus as our Good Shepherd. A good king cares for his subjects the way a shepherd cares for his sheep.

Kings increase the size of their reign and accomplish their work over the whole territory through their subjects. That's why Jesus says, "Whatever you do for one of the least of mine, you do for me."

For example, our Good Shepherd-King wants to distribute food to the hungry, all the way to the farthest reaches of his kingdom. How does he get it done? He gives an abundance of food to some of us and commands us to take it to those who need it.

What happens if we don't fulfill the King's commands? Do the starving people think the King is benevolent? No, they can only see his goodness when we do as he tells us to do.

Look at the people who are around you. Each one is an opportunity to give the King a good name.

What about the people whom you like least of all? What about those who've made you feel angry or intimidated or hurt? Well, ask this: What is he/she hungry for? If the answer's not obvious, ask the Holy Spirit. Observe that person long enough to identify the emptiness or pain or fears that are buried under the surface.

Then ask this: What abundance has God given to me that this "least one" is lacking and needs from Christ our King? Can I show him/her the King's benevolence despite my feelings?

When we say no to opportunities to share what we have, we are behaving like one of the goats whom the Good Shepherd-King separates from the sheep on the way to heaven. And when we say yes, despite the feelings that could make us goat-like, the King's good reputation spreads, and we are all blessed.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

What good things do you have in abundance? How readily do you share them? Who is of least importance to you? How can you take your focus off of what you don't like about them so that you can give them blessings from God?

Questions for Community Faith Sharing:

Have you ever done something good to someone who didn't deserve it? How did this affect your relationship with Jesus? What abundance do you see in each member of your family or faith sharing community that, when shared, blesses others?
