FROM THE PASTOR

Jesus' Mission Statement

Every successful business or organization begins with a mission statement. Usually no longer than a couple sentences, a mission statement is a summary of the purpose and values of that institution. It gives focus to the organization's time and resources, and it gives people outside the group an idea of what they are all about.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus shares his mission statement. Reading from the prophet Isaiah, he says to those gathered in the synagogue—and to us sitting here today—what he is all about. Let's reflect on these words, so we can gain a richer sense of who Jesus is and what he was sent to do.

*The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me
to bring glad tidings to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.* J. Louis

Word of the Day

"I have found that among its other benefits, Giving liberates the soul of the giver."

Maya Angelou
