FROM THE PASTOR

Ask, Seek, Knock

Notice that Jesus does not promise we will receive what we ask or find what we seek or have the door opened to anything other than learning and living God's will.

As a spiritual director often reminded me, God always answers our prayers. Sometimes the answer is no. Other times the answer comes packaged differently than we expect.

A child asked Pope Francis whether or not God hears us. He answered: "When we pray, we don't have to say many things; we don't have to have long discussions with God. They aren't needed. What we need to do, however, is to really open our hearts to him" There you have it: prayer is opening our hearts to God.

When we are one with God, no matter what we ask for in prayer or seek to find or whichever door we want opened, we can find God no matter what life brings. We are one with God and God is one with us.
