Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

2020
15
November

All of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

1 Thessalonians 5:5–6

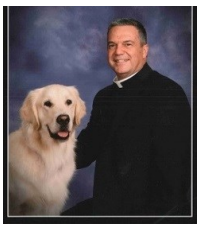
FROM THE PASTOR

TALENTS FOR SERVICE



The word "talent" in today's parable was used at the time of Jesus to describe an actual unit of money. For centuries now, that same word has also been used to describe a natural skill or ability. Of course, many of us turn our skills and abilities into cash through our work. Our "talents" become a means through which we earn a living. So the connection of the word to money has never really been lost. A question for us today might be: In what ways do I put my talents—money and abilities—at the service of God?

There are certain times of the year designated for taking stock of personal, financial, or other inventory. The end of the fiscal year includes a review of business performance and finances. Likewise, it is a time to budget for the coming year.

These final weeks of the church year provide an opportunity to reflect on our spiritual journey. Advent begins in two weeks. We are on the cusp of a new year of grace. New liturgical reforms will be implemented. There is an aura of a fresh start.

Let's not forget our personal faith journeys. This is a good time to take inventory and review where we have been spiritually and set our goals on where we would like to be going. This is a good time to consider some spiritual resolutions and make them a reality.

The last thing we want to hear on Judgment Day is being called a "wicked, lazy servant"!

WORD FOR THE DAY

You are made, fundamentally, from the good.
With this knowledge, you never march alone.
Alberto Ríos

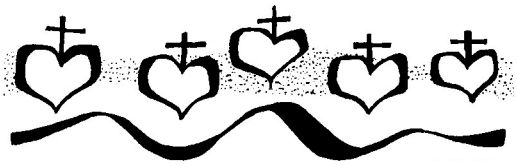
TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The woman who fears the LORD is to be praised Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31.
Psalm 128 Blessed are those who fear the Lord
Second Reading — Brothers and sisters, you are children of the light 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6.
Gospel — Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities Matt 25:14-30

CHANGE OUR LIVES



The letters of Paul to the Thessalonians are among his earliest writings, and are driven by his belief and the belief of the entire early Christian community that the return of Christ was imminent, and that devoting time or attention to anything else was foolish.

As time progressed, this fervor subsided a bit. Today we may wonder, when we hear these readings about the coming end-times, if we should take them to heart, if we really believe that Christ still may come upon us as a "thief at night" 1 Thessalonians 5:2. Does this mean that we are to stop our long-range goal-setting, get rid of our yearly calendars and planners, or stop putting money in the college education fund? Of course not. What it does mean is that we need to change our lives, living like children of the light and illuminating the world around us with the light of the gospel. Then, on that day, when the details of our daily living become unimportant, we will be ready to find our peace and security in Christ Jesus. © J. S. Paluch Co.

1ST DEC 2020 IGIVE CATHOLIC

Please pray for the success of this year's campaign:
Ministry re-boot for Pere Megret & Music Ministry

O Lord, giver of life, we know that all we are, and all we have are gifts from You.

We live in a world that celebrates consumption. You call us to be good stewards of all You have entrusted to us.

May this #GivingTuesday prompt us to gratitude and generosity, that brings nourishment to the hungry and hope to the hopeless.

We pray that #iGiveCatholic may be a miracle of loaves and fishes, where every gift shared lovingly from a grateful heart becomes bread for the multitudes, and the ordinary becomes extraordinary.

In this giving and receiving, may our hearts rejoice in You alone, who are Lord for ever and ever. Amen

CHRISTIAN SERVICE CENTER

CSC provides food for 500+ families a month. Hot lunches are served 4 days a week and groceries are distributed to the needy as available. There are bins in church to deposit dry/canned food. Food can also be brought to the Center at 701 Chevis St. Marcello 893-9756

THE WOMEN'S CENTER at CSC is open on Thursdays. Donations of Diapers and Wipes are needed and can be placed in bins at church.

NOV 18 ST ROSE PHILIPPINE DUCHESNE

The French Revolution dispersed her community, so Rose joined the Religious of the Sacred Heart, volunteering for their US missions, opening the first free school west of the Mississippi. Only after lengthy service as Superior did Rose—now seventy-one—realize her life's dream, undertaking a mission among the Potawatomi Indians. Some thought she was too old.

The Jesuit mission leader welcomed her: "She must come! She may not be able to do much work, but she'll bring the mission success by praying for us!" Frustrated by her inability to learn their languages, Rose nevertheless "spoke" to the Native Americans by her prayerful presence before the tabernacle. "Quah-kah-ka-num-ad," they named her, "Woman-Who-Prays-Always"—their way of bestowing the title the Church would later make official: saint! © J. S. Paluch Co.
