

I, the Lord,
bring low the high tree,
lift high the lowly tree,
wither up the green tree,
and make the
withered tree bloom.
As I, the Lord,
have spoken,
so will I do.

FROM THE PASTOR

A TINY MUSTARD SEED

The readings this week show that what is small, hard to see; even invisible can have huge importance for us. Whether it's the tender shoot of the cedar tree or the tiny seed of the mustard plant, what seems small now will become something mighty.

As we hear in our 2nd reading today, "We walk by faith, not by sight," We hope that what is unseen and, in the future, will come to pass. The important thing, though, is to realize how the present still matters. How you tend that invisible seed (the different matters of faith and hope in God) makes a difference.

What you do "at home in the body" now has consequences for when you are at home in the Lord, so "aspire to please him" at all times. Think of the little seeds, the tiny shoots, and those easy-to-miss places in your life where more attention and cultivation "shall bear fruit," as the psalmist says, in the kingdom of God.

Fr. Louie

WORD FOR THE DAY

"There are plenty of ways to share the faith. It doesn't have to be teaching the entire Catechism; it can be just a simple 'God bless you' or an invitation to come to Mass. "

Mark Kotsay, former MLB player.
