

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 3, 2021

Let the children come to me;

do not prevent them,
for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

FROM THE PASTOR

Today is "Respect Life Sunday". Our care and respect for human life begins with the unborn conceived in the womb, and is carried through to those with special needs and the elderly, namely all of God's people and all God's creation.

Jesus gave us a new commandment to love one another as he has loved us (John 13:34). We are called to be his hands and feet, caring for and loving others.

Pope Francis continuously calls us to "go out to the peripheries" to care for those "on the outskirts of society." He has often talked about the "sacredness of each human person" and explained that "loving life means always taking care of the other, wanting the best for him, cultivating and respecting her transcendent dignity." Ours is a dignity that is rooted in the fact that we were created in love and redeemed in love by God Himself, who is unchanging.

Pope Francis also raised a challenging question that we each need to consider seriously: "In recognizing the inestimable value of human life, we must also reflect on how we use it. Life is first and foremost a gift." God has given us each the gift of life. How will we live it?

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

St. Joseph, defender of life, pray for us!

October 3 – Respect Life Sunday

October 12 – Indigenous People's Day

October 24 – World Mission Sunday

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dear St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child.

We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life—especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things.

How can I defend, protect, care for all life from natural birth to natural death?

THE VOCATION CHALICE

We are inviting families to pray for vocations and encourage others to be open to the priesthood or religious life.

Families host the chalice for one week, praying the Family Prayer for Vocations and any other prayers of their choosing. After a week the chalice is reserved for another family within the parish.

Families pick up the chalice on the St. Joseph Altar at weekend mass and return it a week later to the St. Joseph Altar before 4^{PM} Mass on Saturday.

A sign up binder is in the vestibule of church. Contact Michelle Abshire abshire.ml@gmail.com

The Ladies Altar Society is inviting all ladies of our parish to join this easy and rewarding form of stewardship. We can be like Mary but we really need a few Martha's at this time. Easy and flexible time, children welcome. Volunteers are usually assigned monthly.

Call Edith Russo 652-6989 or call the ministries office 893-0244.

THE BARRIERS THAT SEPARATE US

We live in a society that has many technological avenues for stimulation and entertainment, one in which the urban population exceeds the non-urban.

It is curious that loneliness is a prevalent malady. It is easy to reach out and touch someone, we are told. But, in truth, it is not all that easy, and statistics from the mental health field will reinforce that opinion.

Today's readings are about the ways in which we can authentically reach out: God touches Adam to create a mate and end his solitude; God-in-Jesus takes on human flesh and death in order that we might come to glory; Jesus reaches out to the children whom the disciples had tried to keep away, showing us the manner in which we must approach the loving embrace that awaits us in heaven. Until that day, however, we must remember that ours is a sacramental church, a church of signs of the love of God.

We are called to reach out continually to ease the loneliness and the barriers that separate us from one another and, therefore, from the love of Christ.
