FROM THE PASTOR

Listening for God in the Bible

"Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." St. Jerome

This quote should send us all scurrying for our Bibles! So, why should we make Scripture reading part of our daily lives?

1) It is the living Word of God. Every encounter with Scripture is an encounter with Christ. When we reflect on a passage, it's God speaking to us...today!

2) Sunday isn't enough. At Sunday Mass we hear scripture from the Old and New Testaments, the Psalms, and in our hymns. The prayers at Mass are full of Scriptural quotes. And yet ... it's not enough. We need to take more time, reflecting on God's word to us.

3) God's Word keeps us grounded. It is very easy, in the midst of our busy days, to lose touch with who we are: God's children. Taking time to read Scripture every day keeps us grounded, reminds us of who we are, that Christ is with us.

4) Scripture reminds us of God's covenant. God made a promise to our forefathers in faith: "I will be your God, and you will be my people." Even though we have done many things that should have destroyed that covenant, God's promise is eternal. A covenant is unbreakable, because it is God's truth.

5) Reading Scripture helps us to pray better. Prayer is our lifeline to God. Scripture can help us to pray better. We see ourselves reflected in the sorrow, pain, as well as the joys & faithfulness of biblical people. To enter into God's word helps us to see, hear, feel and understand basic human responses ... and then do better because we know God is with us. Always!

J. J. Louis

Farewell Deacon Reed

For the past five months Deacon Reed Bellingham has been a part of St. Mary Magdalen, as training in preparation for his Ordination to Priesthood. He was given many experiences and opportunities which have helped him to learn about the life of a parish priest. Our parish is a wonderful training ground: the faith of our community is strong and the people are so willing to volunteer and help.

Deacon Reed has won the hearts of this community by his words and also his actions. We are so grateful for his time with us and will pray for him as he returns to Notre Dame Seminary this week. Please remember him and all seminarians in your prayers.

OCTOBER RESPECT LIFE MONTH

Gracious God, help us to realize the sacredness of human life and to respect it from the moment of conception until the last moment at death.

To all, grant pardon for the times we have failed to be grateful for your precious gift of life or to respect it in others.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Naaman, cleansed from his leprosy, returns to Elisha and pledges his belief in and allegiance to the LORD (2 Kings 5:14-17).

Psalm — The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power (Psalm 98).

Second Reading — Remember Jesus Christ, who was raised from the dead. If we persevere, we shall reign with him (2 Timothy 2:8-13).

Gospel — After ten lepers are cleansed by Jesus, only one, a Samaritan, returns to give him thanks (Luke 17:11-19).

Expand your Community, Faith, Relationship with Jesus! Space is limited and fills up quickly.

As the women's team completes the New Iberia ACTS Retreat Oct 16, our 3 year Mission is complete! The men and women of our STMM ACTS have been missioning to five churches in New Iberia, bringing them the ACTS Program as one Coalition of Churches. These churches now begin the journey to evangelize their own community with the launch of their own retreats.

Our STMM ACTS Teams have invested some 20,000 hours of time and talent toward this ministry of community spiritual awakening. Praise God!

'Thank You'
