FROM THE PASTOR

Pope Francis on Divine Mercy Sunday

Pope Francis is fond of reminding us that it is by seeing Jesus' wounds the disciples of all time know that we have been forgiven because we "contemplate the boundless love flowing from his heart" –a heart that beats for each person. When Thomas touched the Lord's wounds, Jesus became "My Lord and my God," The uncertain, waverer disciple then falls in love with the Lord telling him: "You became man for me, you died and rose for me and thus you are not only God; you are my God, you are my life, In you I have found the love that I was looking for, and much more than I could ever have imagined," Pope Francis.

Our sins and the poor choices we often make in life close us off from the Lord's love. We don't need to stay locked behind those doors, Jesus loves to enter precisely through closed doors, when all seems locked up. When we receive that Sacrament of Reconciliation in confession, we learn that the very thing we believe separates us from God – sin – instead "becomes the place where we encounter him, There the God who is wounded by love comes to meet our wounds."
