FROM THE PASTOR

Baptism in Christ: From Death to New Life

At a recent Baptism, I remember speaking with the parents about how their child, through the waters of Baptism, was now called to be a light for others, a positive influence on those around, because they are now united, linked to Christ. That's the symbol of giving the child a candle, lit from the Easter Candle. To be a light for others. We imitate Christ by being the Body of Christ, and humbly offering ourselves in service to God and to others.

What does St. Paul say today? Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? So that just as Christ was raised from the dead, ... we too might live in newness of life.

These words, from his letter to the Romans, focus on: who we are and what we are called to be because of our union with Christ through baptism. We are baptized into Christ so that we can pour out our lives for others as he did. We become one-with-Christ so that we will receive and accept the challenge to be like Christ in our world.

Paul's words are inspirational: we are to be "Christ-like" because of our baptism. This important sacrament begins our intimate relationship to Christ, and to God the Father, and the Holy Spirit. May we become "something absolutely new", as Paul says.

Jn. Louie

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Eucharistic Miracles Throughout History

Scientifically Confirmed

LANCIANO, ITALY

In the eighth century, an Italian monk had doubts while saying mass. As he said the words of consecration, the host visibly changed into cardiac tissue and the wine became physical blood. This miracle has been studied by modern scientists, who have concluded that there is no natural explanation. DNA indicates the flesh is from the middle east, matching the genetics and blood type recovered from the Shroud of Turin.

The Waters Parted

AVIGNON, FRANCE

The Chapel of the Holy Cross had the Eucharist exposed during the massive 1433 flood. The water in the church was 4ft high, but the center aisle remained completely dry, creating a clear path to the Eucharist.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

July 6 | SAINT MARIA GORETTI (1890-1902)

Does anything match a mother's pride in her children? First Communions, confirmations, graduations, weddings: how these delight a mother's heart! Imagine, then, Assunta Goretti, the only mother ever to attend her child's canonization! In poverty-stricken rural Italy, widowed Assunta tended fields for the Serenelli family, whose eighteen-year old son Alessandro propositioned her barely twelve-year old Maria; then, when she resisted, crying, "It is a sin! God forbids it!" he stabbed her fourteen times. As she lay dying, Maria assured the attending priest, "Yes, I forgive Alessandro! I want him to be in Paradise with me someday." Imprisoned, unrepentant, Alessandro changed after dreaming that a radiant Maria had offered him fourteen lilies. "I've kept my promise," she smiled. "You'll be here with me someday." Upon release, he rushed to beg Assunta's forgiveness. "Jesus has forgiven you," she replied, "my Maria too. How can I refuse?" Next morning, mother and murderer walked arm in arm to church and knelt side by side for Communion.
