WELCOME FR NICHOLAS DUPRÉ

My name is Fr. Nicholas DuPré and I am very excited to be serving you here at St. Mary Magdalen and at Vermilion Catholic! Your welcome has been tremendously kind and I have enjoyed the wonderful gifts of Catholic artwork, the cakes, t-shirts, and even a half-gallon of pistachio Blue Bell ice cream. I will be sharing it with Deacon John Dugas and Fr. Louis! Every day since my first day you have built up even more the already great reputation for charity that many of my brother clergy have shared with me.

I am originally from Carencro and attended St. Ben's in Covington, Notre Dame in New Orleans, and St. Philip's in Toronto, Canada, before I was ordained June 14, 2014. You can call me Fr. DuPré - pronounced "do pray" (and I do pray for you 😊), or Fr. Nick, even Padre works, just as long as you call me who the Church has called me to be for you. We all need good fathers to bless and strengthen us and so calling me by my relationship to you - father - will only help me to serve you.

Please join me in praying that I allow the Lord to become more present through His priesthood to all of you and that together we work to continue to build up the already powerful Catholic witness in the Abbeville community.

Rev. Nicholas E. DuPré

John 14:16-17 "It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."

SAINT JOHN CHRYSOSTOM September 13

"Speaking truth to power" may have become just another cliché, but doing precisely that cost John "the Golden Mouth" (Chrysostom) his diocese and, after exile and a forced march, his health and life. "Renowned for eloquence, heroic in suffering" (Sacramentary), John's scriptural insights still comfort and challenge. Mystical theologian, he bids Eastern Christians, whose principal Divine Liturgy bears his name, to lift up their hearts to "God ineffable, beyond comprehension, invisible, beyond understanding, existing forever, always the same." Model pastor, he warns Roman Catholics in the Liturgy of the Hours not to neglect God-in-the-flesh: "Would you honor Christ's body? Do not scorn his nakedness, honoring him here in church with silken robes, while neglecting him cold and naked outside. What use to burden Christ's altar with golden chalices, while Christ himself starves to death? What use dressing the altar with gold-woven cloths, while denying the shivering Christ the clothes he needs? Do not adorn the church while ignoring your needy brother: he is the most precious temple of all!"
