FROM THE PASTOR

Forgiveness – Divine Mercy

Jesus' words "Whose sins you forgive are forgiven, and whose sins you retain are retained" are the heart of our Sacrament of Reconciliation.

Jesus' Easter instructions are not addressed just to us as a Church, but to each one of us as individuals. We all possess the grace to forgive another person, to make our own small "sacraments" of reconciliation and peace with others.

We also know we can "retain" sins, which isn't good. This can be deadly not just for the person who has wronged us but to ourselves as well, because of bitterness and anger.

This Easter season, create your own experiences of healing forgiveness and transforming reconciliation with someone with whom you are estranged. Jesus offers his life-giving peace and spirit: "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them!" Won't you take that first, difficult step to offer forgiveness or seek it from another?

Fr. Louie

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Divine Mercy
✕
I also promise victory over enemies
already here
on earth,
especially at the hour of death.
I myself will defend it as
My own glory."

(Diary of Faustina, 48)

Divine Mercy Sunday is a very special Sunday when the Divine Floodgates from Heaven are wide-open and Jesus offers us the total forgiveness of all sins and punishment to any soul, who goes to Confession and receives Him in Holy Communion, on that day.

Hail,
favored one
The Lord is with you.
