FROM THE PASTOR

Feast of Body & Blood of Christ

What does it mean to receive... and become... the "Body of Christ"?

St. Augustine famously said our prayer should be: "May we become what we eat." The body of Christ that we receive today, may we become Christ for others.

We are taught that, in the Eucharist, bread and wine are transformed by the Spirit of God into the body and blood of Christ. The Church also teaches us that what we receive in this sacrament should transform us into becoming sacraments ourselves: sacraments of God's love for one another, signs of God's presence to our families and communities, revelations of a humanity bound together in God's spirit of compassion, justice and peace.

In our coming to this Eucharistic table, let's pray that we might rise from the brokenness of our disagreements and divisions to become Christ's Church of peace. Let's offer today a sincere prayer that the Eucharist makes each one of us an agent of reconciliation, a prophet of justice, and a bridge of mercy and healing. The Eucharist animates the Church with the life of Christ. May it also make us worthy of the love and compassion of God. "If you have received worthily," St. Augustine preached, "you are what you have received."

Fr. Louie
