FROM FR. JOHN DUGAS

THANK YOU

This past year as a Deacon has been such a gift to me! A big part of the wonderful gift of this past year has been that I have done it with all of you.

The parish and everyone involved here at St. Mary Magdalen has truly changed my life. I am beyond grateful for all of the beautiful ways you have let me into your lives to bring the Gospel. It has been such a wonderful gift to serve here going into my priesthood.

I also cannot fail to mention how wonderful it has been to be involved at Vermillion Catholic, a legacy of Mount Carmel. Getting to know the whole VC community has been a wonderful gift to me. Thank you all so much! I couldn't have picked a better place to start my life as an ordained cleric.

Please know that I will never forget my time here, and I will carry you all in my heart and in my prayers as I move on. I am sad to leave, but I go forth with a great hope that one day, we will all reunite in Heaven, making heaven crowded! Most likely I will see many of you long before that, and I am excited to see you again soon! This is a special place, and God is doing wonderful things here. Please pray that I can be faithful to the unique mission that Christ has laid before me. There is a lot of work to be done! Until next time.

Fr. (!!! Finally!) John Karol Dugas

GIVE THANKS TO OUR LOVING GOD

It is so easy to complain when things don't go our way. We don't understand why certain situations have to be so hard or why family members have to suffer. If anyone ever had anything to complain about it was certainly Job, but in today's first reading God called him out on it rather strongly.

God himself teaches us with this passage just how much he dislikes complaining. Our Psalm proclaims: "Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting." And that sums it up right there. Period. We have the love of God, what more do we need? Thanks be to God!

Our second reading only confirms this thought. "The love of Christ impels us...whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come." Everything on this earth will pass away. Yet we should not fear, because we are a new creation in Christ and his love impels us forward.

In today's Gospel, the disciples fell into fear, and Jesus reminded them of his great power and love by calming the storm with just three words: "Quiet! Be Still!" When we call on him in faith, he can calm our storms as well. No matter how strong the winds or how tall the waves, Jesus can help us.

So whenever life's many trials and tribulations get you down, remember that complaining won't get you anywhere. Instead, lift your heart and mind to our all-powerful God and give thanks to him, whose love is everlasting.

AROUND THE PARISH

EVEN THE WIND AND SEA OBEY HIM

Take Joy

By: Fra Angelico

"There is nothing I can give you which you have not; but there is much that while I cannot give, you can take. No heaven can come to us unless our hearts find rest in it today. Take Heaven. No peace lies in the future which is not hidden in this present instant. Take Peace. The gloom of the world is but a shadow, behind it, yet, within our reach, is joy. Take Joy... I greet you, with the prayer that for you, now and forever, the day breaks, and the shadows flee away."

THURSDAY ADORATION

Each Thursday the Eucharist is exposed in the Adoration Chapel from 7am-10pm.

Thank You

I entered religious life in 1960. Since then, it has been a wonderful journey. I have served in ten parishes and schools, and I also ministered in the diocesan offices for 16 years.

I met my friend, Fr. Louie, at St. Pius 40+ years ago, and I have been blessed to serve with him in four church parishes. I have so appreciated sharing my faith and ministry with the parishioners of St. Mary Magdalen for the last nine years.

The mission of my order, The Sisters of the Eucharistic Covenant, states: "We are committed to journey and to discern together. Our covenant relationship invites us to remember our journey as gifted and fosters gratitude within us. Convinced of God's presence and power within us, we strive to enable others to discover this Presence. We do this by: Living simply so that others may live. Discerning personally and communally the needs that can be met by our gifts, and by responding to those needs. Creating a presence of hospitality, acceptance and dignity among the people we serve. Being rooted in personal and communal prayer."

I have loved being 'Sr. Carm' all these years. Let us pray for each other as we continue on the journey blessed by a loving Creator.

Sr. Carm
