FROM THE PASTOR

PASTORAL COUNCIL

Dear Parishioners,

One of the things a new pastor needs to do is establish the pastoral council for the parish.

The Diocese asks that a certain percentage of the members be elected.

The Trustees and school principal belong to the council automatically, and I can appoint a few other members to ensure good representation, but the remaining members are to be nominated and elected by you, the people of the parish.

Within the next month, we will host a nomination and election process to choose 5 members of the pastoral council. In the meantime, I ask that you prayerfully consider who would be well suited for the task.

A member of the pastoral council needs to be a parishioner, a Catholic in good standing, and someone known for prudence. Their task is to represent the needs and interests of the parish to me and to assist me in serving the community. While their role is advisory, their input is invaluable to me and will certainly inform my decision making.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and I look forward to working with the pastoral council in the future.

In Christ,

Fr. Albert
