FROM THE PASTOR

SCAMMERS & LIARS

Dear Parishioners,

Some of you have already had the unfortunate experience of being targeted by scammers. Sadly, there are people in the world who will pretend to be a priest in order to convince other people to give them money. From time to time, someone gets their hands on an email list or a group of phone numbers of people in the parish. They then create a fake email or use a temporary cell phone number to send messages pretending to be me.

Usually, these messages involve a lie about needing gift cards or a credit card to help some group of people. A recent one claimed I was trying to help some cancer patients and that I needed gift cards.

Please don't fall for these tricks. I will never ask for gift cards via text or email. When you get a message supposedly from me that seems weird, trust your gut. Double check the phone number it's coming from. Is it a weird area code? Look closely at the email address it comes from. Does it use odd spelling or punctuation? If you aren't 100% certain it's me, ignore that message and report it as spam. If you think it might really be me, verify it through some other more reliable form of communication. Contact the office or one of our staff. Still, if it seems weird, it's probably fake.

I've been asked why people do this. It's because it works. People fall for it. If we can get the word out about how not to fall for these scams, they'll stop working and then people will stop trying it. Please be careful.

In Christ,

Fr. Albert

THE GREAT NOVENA DAILY PRAYER

God our Father, we love and adore You.

Although humanity abandoned you through Original Sin in the garden and countless personal sins, you have never abandoned us.

We praise you for making us into your beloved sons and daughters. Grant us always to live as your children, seeking your will in all things.

Jesus, Son of God, in this Great Novena leading to the 2,000th anniversary of Your death, resurrection, and ascension into heaven, we trust in Your merciful, personal love. Help us to keep the Great Commission, making a gift of ourselves through great faith, great hope, and great love.

Come, Holy Spirit, renew the face of the earth. As we celebrate the 2,000th anniversary of your descent at Pentecost, give us the gift of communion in the Church, starting with our beloved Diocese of Lafayette, so the world may come to know Jesus, sent by the Father. Make each of us into true disciples, full of apostolic courage and holy zeal.

Most Holy Trinity and Divine Unity, as we approach the 2,000th anniversary of our salvation, grant through our works, prayers, penances, and studies that your grace may be poured out upon the world in renewed and ever-great abundance. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
