FROM THE PASTOR

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

Dear Parishioners,

For this week of Respect Life Month, I want to address End of Life care.

As you may know, the Church teaches that life must be respected and protected from conception until natural death. Sadly, there is a rising trend of people seeking to “control” their own death. They hide behind phrases like “death with dignity” and “assisted dying” and “merciful death,” but the truth is that they are talking about deliberately taking innocent human life.

That is never okay. Euthanasia and assisted suicide are always wrong. We can provide palliative care to ease pain. We can decide to stop extraordinary treatments and let nature take its course. But we can never starve someone or deny them water and we certainly can’t deliberately kill someone just because they are in pain and ask us to. Informed as we are by our faith, we know that no human person is ever worthless and that no amount of pain justifies doing evil. There is always a better way of responding to suffering than to choose to sin. What the world needs from Catholics above all is the witness to the power of faith in the midst of suffering. “Offering it up,” also called redemptive suffering, when paired with a compassionate community can show the world a better way to face the trials and sufferings of sickness and death than to simply kill those who inconvenience us.

There is much more to say about this issue, so I again refer you to respectlife.org/articles, especially the ones titled “Catholic Considerations on our Earthly Passing,” “Advanced Medical Directives,” and “top Reasons to Oppose Assisted Suicide.”

Please pray for those considering this awful course of action and strive to build up the culture of life by the way you treat the sick, suffering, and dying members of our community.

In Christ,

Fr. Albert

Why World Mission Sunday Matters

World Mission Sunday, observed on October 20th this year, is not just another Sunday; it is a powerful reminder of our call to be missionaries. The collection taken up on this day is unique as it is mandated by the Code of Canon Law and is essential for the survival and growth of the Church in mission territories.

These funds support the pastoral and evangelizing work of the Church, including building churches, providing healthcare and education, and training future priests and religious. In places where resources are scarce, your generosity makes a profound difference. As we reflect on the theme “Go and invite everyone to the banquet,” let us remember that our participation and support help invite countless souls to the feast of God’s love.
