FROM THE PASTOR

Respect Life Month: Human Trafficking

Last week, I focused on the day of prayer and fasting for the election and I didn't finish my series on life issues. For the final segment, I want to address the topic of Human Trafficking.

People sometimes say that slavery was defeated in the U.S. after our Civil War. This is simply not true. Approximately 27.6 million people around the world are victims of human trafficking. That includes both forced labor and sex trafficking. As you can imagine, this issue intersects with issues of respecting life on multiple fronts. Immigrants are often easy targets for trafficking, and forced abortions are common within the sex trade.

And yes, this goes on within the United States and even our own state of Louisiana, with I-10 being a major corridor for trafficking. It is important that we maintain awareness of this issue and develop at least some familiarity with how to recognize signs of trafficking. You can find our more at polarisproject.org/human-trafficking. This site offers data and even training on how to recognize it. Please educate yourself and pray for those affected. Take note of public policies that can affect his issue.

Fortunately, there are groups - like Metanoia Manor here in Louisiana - that specialize in caring for children who have been rescued from trafficking. I encourage you to visit metanoia-inc.org to see what they do and, if possible, support them in some way.

We fight for life, which means we fight against anything that tries to turn human life into a commodity. May God bless our efforts!

In Christ,

Fr. Albert

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

God our Father, from eternity You appointed Your only begotten Son to be the High Priest of the human race. Pour forth, we beseech You, Your Holy Spirit upon our families, that vocations to the priesthood may be multiplied. Lord Jesus, give us holy priests:

To offer up the sacrifice of the Mass;

To lead the little ones to You;

To strengthen the faith of believers;

To preach the Gospel to all peoples;

To bring forgiveness to sinners;

To feed souls the Bread of Life;

To comfort the suffering & dying, and

To spread Your Kingdom in our midst.

Mary, Mother of our High Priest, pray for us and obtain for us an increase of holy priests for the Diocese of Lafayette. Amen.
