FROM THE PASTOR

He is Risen! He is Risen Indeed!

“Christ is Risen! - He is Risen indeed!” That is an ancient call and response among Christians. It cuts right to the heart of Christian faith. It not only acknowledges the miracle that changed the world, it acknowledges that it is present here and now. Christ is risen.

So, if you're bored with typical greetings like “good morning/afternoon” or “how are you,” try this one! It's got a little more flavor than “Happy Easter,” while saying the same thing.

More importantly, however, consider how you can say “he is risen” with your life.

We've just finished Lent, when everyone gave up something for over 40 days. It can be kind of a letdown or deflating experience. After digging into a Lenten penance, simply going back to the way things were before is almost...disappointing. Now, it is Easter, so we should feast and celebrate and enjoy ourselves (without excess!), but that doesn't mean we completely forget what we tried to learn during Lent. For many people, the extra prayer or sacrifice is something they could and should incorporate permanently into life, at least in some form. So, prayerfully consider what your “post-Lent” will look like. How will the rest of your life show signs that Lent was effective?

If we have Lenten Penance, perhaps we should also have “Easter Joys.” These would be resolutions particularly rooted in the season of Easter. It could be a resolution to be cheerful or to smile more. Perhaps it's sharing hope: pick someone once a week to randomly encourage in person or by letter. We fast during Lent, we feast during Easter. So, maybe resolve to invite someone to share a joyful meal each week. Only be sure to pray for them before and to consciously bring joy and hope into the occasion.

“Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him” (Col 3:17). Why? Because Christ is Risen, He is Risen indeed!

In Christ, Fr. Albert
