FROM THE PASTOR: MAKING SENSE OUT OF MASS INTENTIONS

Some of you may have already heard that we're changing the policy for Mass intentions at St. Mary Magdalen. There is a lot of misunderstanding on the topic of Mass intentions, so please be open to what I'm saying even if it doesn't fit with what you heard a long time ago. It is a complicated topic, and I can't fit it all here. A much more thorough explanation will be available in writing in the office as well as online in video format. For now, here are the main points:

Firstly, the Mass is a sacrifice. It re-presents (presents again) the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross and allows us to participate in this sacrifice. It is never necessary to offer money in order to benefit from going to Mass. You can always attend and pray and receive grace. Most Catholics throughout the world never use our system of Mass intentions and that's fine. Still, the Church offers "Mass Intentions" as a way for us to make a sacrifice tangible through a gift of money given to the priest who celebrates the Mass. In the Old Testament, Levitical priests at the meat of animals sacrificed in the temples, and Jesus teaches us that the "worker deserves his wage." The "offering" for a Mass intention is different from tithing. Tithing (the collection) supports the Church, but Mass intention offerings support the priest directly ($5 per Mass). The money for Mass intentions does not go to our parish. It never has.

Secondly, because we don't want to make it look like we're "selling grace," or letting people "buy their way into heaven," this practice is strictly regulated by the Vatican. Just before he died, Pope Francis approved a document reiterating the rules for Mass intentions. The Church's law limits it to one intention per one Mass, and the amount for the "offering" is regulated by the diocese. Our diocese set it at $5 per intention (so $100 = 20 Masses unless you specify otherwise.) Also, a priest is not allowed to accept more Mass intentions than he can fulfill in 1 year. Sadly, many parishes do not follow this policy, or they follow it in a way that is confusing. I cannot explain that fully here, but will elsewhere.

Thirdly, the Mass offers infinite grace to us. So, even though we can only have one official "intention" at a Mass, priests can always pray for as many people as they want at Mass. Those extra "private intentions" just can't be an official intention and the priest cannot charge people money for them. This means we can still list people's names in the bulletin on the dates that matter to them or their loved ones. We just can't call them "Mass Intentions" or require any money for it.

So, this is our new policy:

1. There will be only one "official" intention per Mass.
  - A "Mass intention" can be made for an individual person, a married couple, or a single family (e.g., "The Albert Family").
  - Each Parishioner Family may purchase one Mass Intention request per month.
  - There will be a $5 offering for each Mass Intention requested.
  - Only those who are registered Parishioners of St. Mary Magdalen will be allowed to request Mass intentions here since we have so many parishioners.
2. We are adding a "Prayer Request" section next to Mass intentions in the bulletin.
  - Parishioners can list their prayer request in the section for free.
  - For reasons of space, we'll only accept up to 25 prayer requests per Mass.
  - The priest will include these requests as part of his private intentions in addition to the official intention.
3. No Mass intention or Prayer Request will be accepted more than one year in advance, starting on the first workday of the month.
  - For example: on June 2, 2025, we'll begin accepting intentions for June, 2026.
4. Because we are limited to approximately 400 Mass intentions per year, we will provide information in the office and on our website on how to send your additional Mass intentions to missionary priests around the world. They need the money.

In Christ, Fr. Albert
