FROM THE PASTOR: PROCLAIMING THE WORD OF GOD... AND HEARING IT

A huge congratulations to Deacon Bret Lee! After years in the seminary, he has finally been ordained in service to the Church in the Diocese of Lafayette. This means he's just one year away from being ordained as a priest!

However, being ordained a deacon is more than just a stepping stone to the priesthood. Bret is now indelibly configured to Jesus Christ the servant. Deacons are ordained primarily for service and for the proclamation of the Gospel. St. Stephen, the first martyr and one of the first deacons, was killed for proclaiming the Gospel. This is why, during the ordination ritual, the newly ordained deacon is handed a copy of the book of the Gospels while the bishop says, "Believe what you read, teach what you believe, and practice what you teach." Given the special occasion and emphasis on the diaconate, I thought it would be fitting to hear from all our deacons this weekend. Pray for all our deacons, especially Bret Lee, that they may faithfully teach and live the gospel.

I am excited to hear Deacon Bret Lee preach. Sadly, however, while ours is a beautiful church in which to hear the gospel proclaimed, it is often not easy to hear proclamations here due to ongoing difficulties with our sound system. While I've managed to improve it with some minor repairs and a few dozen hours personally spent tweaking settings, our sound system is still temperamental and unreliable. And now, we're on the verge of needing more repairs.

Rather than continue to patch an old and unreliable system, we want to replace it and upgrade it. We want to do it right, which is why we've hired Gulf Coast Sound to do it, a company highly recommended by multiple churches, including the Cathedral and St. Bernard in Breaux Bridge. To pay for this work, however, we'll need to do some fundraising because we do not have any room in our budget or savings. This is why we will be launching a 3-month fundraising campaign. I'll share more details in the near future. For now, please prayerfully consider what kind of support you're able and willing to give over the next 3 months to help our Church continue to be the place to hear the Gospel.

In Christ,
Fr. Albert

Hurricane Prayer

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude: you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control.

The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O Loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us.

Amen
