FROM THE PASTOR: A FAREWELL TO FR. NICK

It is a bittersweet weekend for us here at St. Mary Magdalen. This marks the end of Fr. Nick DuPré's assignment as Parochial Vicar (Associate Pastor) at our parish. He begins his assignment in Duson on July 1, but will be taking the next two weeks to pray, move and prepare for that important role. I hope they appreciate him as much as we do!

In the year I've gotten to spend as his pastor, Fr. Nick has proven to be a wonderful vicar and housemate. I'm deeply grateful for his priestly heart, his dedicated service to the people of the parish, and for the countless things he's done that I didn't even know about. He certainly has done a lot to help me enter into my role here as Pastor and for that I am deeply grateful. May God continue to nurture and bless the fruits of his labor in this community.

Please join me in prayer for Fr. Nick as he begins his next assignment. Please also make sure to express your gratitude to him and to God for the work he's done and for his vocation. God bless Fr. Nick DuPré!

In Christ,
Fr. Albert
