Scripture Reflection

Today concludes a three-week series of Gospel texts in which we have listened to a total of seven parables about the Kingdom. The believer is asked to consider the request that God made of Solomon in today's first reading: "Ask something of me and I will give it to you" (1 Kings 3:5). Today's parables about the treasure buried in the field and the pearl of great price should prompt us to answer, "A share in your kingdom, O God!" Today we discover that the kingdom of God is beyond value, a priceless treasure. Unfortunately, our culture bombards us with things that it believes are priceless treasures—the bigger and better SUVs, anti-aging and anti-balding creams and salves, miracle diets, and so much more. Having a share in God's kingdom and helping to bring about that kingdom are the greatest treasures that we can ever hope to gain.

Archdiocesan Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family. Amen.

St. Catherine of Siena Parish Prayer

God, Our Father, we thank you for our parish community of St. Catherine of Siena. Thank you for the many blessings that you have given us, but especially for calling us to serve as disciples of your son, Jesus Christ. As we gather today, we ask that you send your Holy Spirit to guide us in everything that we do. Transform our hearts and lead us closer to you. Help us always to seek to be a parish that is Centered on Christ and Ablaze with Love. We ask all of these things in the name of Jesus, and through the intercession of our Blessed Mother. St. Catherine of Siena, pray for us!

St. Michael the Archangel Prayer

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Our Mission

St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Parish exists to form and send forth a community of disciples of Jesus Christ who witness by joyfully living the Gospel.

Black and Indian Mission Appeal: Thank You!

Thank you for your support of last weekend's second collection to help bishops and dioceses to build up the Church in African American, Native American, and Alaska Native communities. Many people benefit from the Black and Indian Mission Collection (BIMC), such as students in a small mission school in the deep south, the Catholic community served by a Native deacon in Alaska, and the Native American parish on the prairie. The BIMC helps get good teachers in schools that otherwise would struggle to remain open, helps dioceses form lay ministers and catechists to spread the Gospel in their communities, and encourages young African Americans and Native Americans to serve as priests, brothers, or sisters.

KC BBQ Chicken Dinner: Thank You!

The SCS Knights of Columbus Council 12686 would like to express their sincere appreciation and thanks to all who supported their BBQ Chicken Dinner last weekend. The event was a huge success...well over 150 dinners were served. It felt good to offer an event for the SCS community to take part in and for us as a Council to once again gather as a team and work together. Financially it has allowed us to recoup some funding for the charitable events the Council sponsors throughout the year.

We also had many Parishioners who purchased extra meals or made a donation to supply a meal to a needy family. The Council supplied all of those donated meals plus some to the Hotel Hope ministry (www.hotelhope.org), a nonprofit organization in the area that provides housing to homeless women and their children while guiding them to self-sufficiency. Thank you all once again for your support!

Message from Seminarian Intern Andrew Fourcade

Thanks be to God! I would like to thank St. Catherine of Siena Parish for the opportunity to become part of the parish family for this summer. It was an amazing experience to have been here over the last two months, seeing God's active role in various parish ministries. I would like to thank everyone with whom I collaborated in the Rosary Altar Society, the CYO, the St. Vincent de Paul Society/St. Catherine's Helping Hands, the Grief Support Ministry, the Parish Office, the Homebound Visitation Ministry, and the Summer Camp; because of these ministries, at the end of every day I was left astounded by the love of God shining through parishioners of all ages. As I continue my studies in formation for the priesthood, I will never forget this parish in my prayers.

Wearing a Mask Required at all Masses

Since July 1, by order of the Jefferson Parish President, masks must be worn inside all businesses in Jefferson Parish, including churches. Archbishop Aymond sent an email asking all Catholic churches in Jefferson Parish to comply with this order. Please bring a mask and wear it at Mass and when visiting the adoration chapel. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Two-Minute Testimony: Dcn. Andrew Sanchez

*Two-minute Testimony
...a brief faith witness
by a member of the SCS community*

Family has always been and continues to be a very important part of my life. My parents were a constant reminder of God's presence in my daily life. They always held my siblings and me accountable for our actions and guided us with gentle discipline and love, a love rooted in Jesus and His Church. I learned from an early age through his explanations and actions that my father corrected me because he loved me and was concerned about my development into a well-rounded man. In this way and in many others, my father modeled God's love for me. In her own way, my mom also modeled God's love for me. I will never forget the time that I didn't feel like kneeling during Mass and my mom reminded me that if Jesus could hang and die on the cross then I could kneel for a short while. For my family, Mass was a "must" on Sundays and holy days of obligation. Another constant was family dinner, before which we always thanked God in prayer. To this day I still witness the love of God in my parents through their loving commitment to each other in marriage and their constant love for and support of my siblings, my nieces, my nephew and me.

Although the call to priesthood was always there I was often hard of hearing. As I look back at my youth I can now say that I was aware that God was calling me to something special. Although I would not have been able to articulate it then, I definitely felt gently drawn to the transcendent realities of our faith by God. I was quite involved in the liturgical life of the Church from as early as I can remember. I was an active altar server and I even played the role of Jesus for our living Stations of the Cross. Although I desired to serve God, I can't take credit for my active involvement since most of the time I was involved due to the fact that I was unable to tell a certain demanding but loving religious sister "no." I think that she recognized my desire to please God with my life and that He was calling to me to do so in a way that I could never imagine at such a young age.

I continued to actively serve God until I decided that it was no longer the "cool" thing to do. I think this was the beginning of my slow but definite departure from practicing my faith. As I moved into high school and college, living a life that put myself, instead of God, at the center became more and more the way I lived. Deep down I knew that I was turning my back on God, but my cycle of selfishness became harder and harder to break. It was only by the grace of God that I was eventually able to turn back to Him. My journey back home to God and His Church began when I moved away from home after college. In return for an Army scholarship for dental school I served for four years as an active duty Army dentist. The Army thought that it would be funny to send the Louisiana guy to Alaska (in all honesty it was #8 on my list of choices, so I was actually pretty excited about it).

From 2012-2014 when I lived in Fairbanks, Alaska, it slowly became evident that God has always been calling me to consider serving as a priest for His Church. This was the first time in my life that I really took ownership of my faith life and practices instead of just going through the motions. Being 4,000 miles away from home really forced me to assess my relationship with Christ and His Church. A deep desire to grow in my faith began to arise in me and as a result of an active, close-knit Army parish community I grew closer to our Lord and lived my life more fully according to Catholic teaching than at any other time in my life. At the same time I grew close to a beautiful, loving, and caring young lady. She was someone whom I could have imagined marrying. However, as she and I began to discern marriage it slowly became evident that God had a different plan for my life. The more she and I talked and thought about marriage, the more my uncertainty and anxiety about the future increased. There was an Army priest whom I admired for his devout life of holiness and selfless service of God's people. One day at Mass, this priest gave a homily on Matthew 16:13-23 where "Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly...and be killed," to which St. Peter responded, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you." Jesus responded to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do." This last part is what the priest homilist related to discerning God's call in our lives. He said that sometimes in life we think about what we want and not what God wants for us. We can be an obstacle to God when we think as human beings and not about what God wants us to do with our lives. I felt like I was the only one in the church. I met with the priest later that week and he gave me some really good advice about discerning God's will in my life. He told me to stay close to the sacraments of the Eucharist and reconciliation, and to pray in front of the Blessed Sacrament whenever I could. As I did these things it became evident that God was calling me to seminary to discern more thoroughly a life dedicated to Him as a priest. I decided I had to break up with my girlfriend in order to discern priesthood more seriously, and this was a time filled with great sadness and loneliness, but at the same time it was a time filled with a great peace, the peace of knowing that I was doing what God was calling me to do with my life. Over time my sadness and heartache subsided, and the peace remains, the peace and joy of striving daily to become the man God created me to be.

Where in your life is God calling you to think as God and not as human? Where are you being an obstacle to the work of God in your life? Where is He calling you to more deeply love Him and serve him through the offering of your life? Together we are all called to a life of holiness, a life of surrender to the loving, peaceful will of God. Let us continue to pray for and support each other in our walk towards holiness.

If you would like to share your testimony, please contact Joni in the church office.

All painters of any medium are invited to five days of peaceful, quiet painting on the grounds of Saint Joseph Abbey, Monday-Friday, August 24-28. Air-conditioned space will be available in the Abbey Art Works studio, and artists will be free to work outdoors, at their own pace, and to develop their own imagery. Enjoy meeting and sharing art and ideas with other artists. The $750 fee includes room and board plus meals in the Retreat Center. Visit www.saintjosephabbey.com/artist-retreat for more information or to register.

Saint Joseph Abbey Retreats Starting in September

Registration is now open for the 2020-21 schedule of "In Silence" retreats at Saint Joseph Abbey. The first retreat takes place on Labor Day weekend, September 4-6. A series led by the Abbey's Fr. Ephrem Arcement, OSB, "In Silence," is intended to help adults find spiritual renewal and awakening by entering more deeply into the silent depths of God's presence through exploring the life and writings of the mystics of the Christian tradition. The theme this year is, "In Silence with the Cloud of the Unknowing." Visit www.saintjosephabbey.com/in-silence for additional dates and to register.
