The fulfillment of God's word is cause for rejoicing. The word of God provides instruction, challenge, and promise for all who believe. As we receive God's word, we must be open to all that it holds for us. We are called to rejoice that we possess God's word, follow it, and have it fulfilled in our lives.

Ezra and Nehemiah proclaim the Law before the people. Paul shares with the Corinthians the metaphor of the body to describe how each one of them is an essential and indispensable part of the Body of Christ. In the Gospel, Jesus reads from the prophet Isaiah about the promised Messiah. Jesus says that the passage has been fulfilled.
